DISMISSAL OF COMPLAINT UNDER SECTION 5 (e) OF TITLE I OF THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL RECOVERY ACT WITH RESPECT TO IMPORTS OF PIG IRON

A complaint under Section 5 (e) of the National Industrial Recovery Act, addressed to me by a tariff committee representing the eastern group of merchant pig iron producers under authority conferred on said group by the Code Authority of the Iron and Steel Industry, has been filed with the National Recovery Administration alleging that pig iron is being imported into the United States on such terms or under such conditions as to render ineffective or seriously to endanger the maintenance of the Code of Fair Competition for the Iron and Steel Industry.

After an examination of said complaint and the report and recommendation of the National Industrial Recovery Board with respect thereto, I find that the facts do not appear to be such as to warrant further investigation in accordance with Section 5 (e) of said Act.

I, therefore, direct that no further action be taken with regard to said complaint and that the complainant be so notified.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

AMENDMENT OF INSTRUCTIONS TO DIPLOMATIC OFFICERS AND OF CONSULAR REGULATIONS

Section 25 of chapter XX of the Instructions to Diplomatic Officers and section 572 of the Consular Regulations are hereby amended to read as follows:

"On whom drafts are to be drawn. Drafts on the Secretary of State are to be drawn at 5 days after sight, acceptance waived and endorsements by procuration excepted; Provided, however, That the number of days may be changed by the Secretary of State, in his discretion, to not more than 10."

Section 328 of the Consular Regulations is hereby amended to read as follows:

"328. When consul may reward rescuing crew. If, after investigating the facts and circumstances of the rescue, in the judgment of the consular officer, the master and the rescuing boat's crew, or any of them, are deserving of reward, he is authorized to pay to such master and boat's crew, or to any of them, without previous reference of the matter to the Department of State, a sum of money ranging from $5 to $25, according to the rank and merit of the recipient. In making these payments the consular officer is authorized to draw on the Secretary of State for a sufficient amount. A separate account of the expenditure, supported by vouchers, must be sent to the Department immediately on payment of the money. (Form No. 170.)

In making these awards it is expected that consular officers will exercise due diligence and sound discretion. Humane as well as heroic action is deemed deserving of recognition, though in a less degree; and sacrifice of business interests as well as disregard of personal peril. Volunteer efforts should also be rated higher than compulsory action under the orders of a superior.

Accompanying the accounts should be sent a full statement of the facts of each case, in conformity with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, in order that the Department may determine what further action, if any, should be taken to do justice to all the parties to the rescue.

When the action of the master or any member of the crew is deemed deserving of a more liberal acknowledgment, or one different from that herein authorized to be made, the report should fully demonstrate his title to other or additional recognition." . . . . .

This order supersedes Executive Order No. 6810-A, of August 4, 1934.
