Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

I am an English schoolboy, and I am collecting Autographs. I would very much like to add yours and that of your husband, the President, to my collection. Do you think you could possibly let me have these, please?

I would also be very grateful, if you could obtain for me the Autographs of any well-known people, with whom you may come in contact.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yrs. Sincerely,

Geoffrey Boyman.
