Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

Re - "Commands for Peace".

No acknowledgement to MS dedicated to yourself & the late President in 5 wks. No response to 3 telegrams.

I do not ask for your sponsorship. I desire to know if you received the MS.

The one woman who can help bring Peace has not suffered a change of heart or mind. Has she? Only the selfish grow old.

Sincerely,

Rex Wiggins.

My dear Mr. Wiggins:

I do not have any record of your manuscript. The volume of mail is so great that often things become lost.

In every case when a manuscript is sent to Mrs. Roosevelt it is returned to the owner. There is the possibility that it was returned but lost in the mails.

With many regrets,

Very sincerely,

Secretary

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

Last September, I despatched to you a letter concerning the Peace, but gave an inadequate address. In consequence, your response was probably returned.

Have been in retreat in interval. Now very anxious, indeed, to have your considered response to this letter. May I, please. Sincerely,

Mark Holly (Mex Wiggins M.D.)

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

Ref. Mrs. Thompson's letter of June 4th.

If this turns up, be kind & let me know.

Attached is the dedication and two small pieces from it - "The Commands for Peace."

I feel your years are being annulled by your youthful spirituality.

In faith,

PRAY FOR PEACE

Prayer being an appeal to God the source of all strength - is the greatest power of which we ca n ava il ourselves for achieveme nt and progress towards peace.
It quickens and refines our nature, enriches our chara cter, gives direction to our w ill and a ffirms in our mind that which we truly desire or need.
It is effective whe n sincere and selfless and w hen we work on God's plan, upon which it is based - to create peace through our service and sacrifice for the commonweal.

Text - I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in me , though he were dead, yet sha ll he live . And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

Interpretation - Jesus responds to Martha's true belief with the most vital and life -giving pronouncement uttered during his ministry. Which, if fully comprehended and made a part, the essential part, of our every thought, we would see the way, the way of Jesus, be inspired, strengthened and so enabled to create peace.
Without hesitation or reservation, he announces to a troubled and stricken world: "I a m the resurrection and the life ". Meaning not alone that it is God's will so my power to restore life . But that, "I am the true expression and full embodiment of a ll things creative, positive and vital to life, in life and for life". I have God's power because I believe in Him and live his life. You can have his power when you truly believe, work well, serve faithfully and sacrifice for others, so that a ll may enj oy peace on earth and in the eternal life.
