Dear Mr. Brownlow:

Many thanks for your letter of April 29th.

I am sure the offices are very attractive and I shall stop in the next time I am in Washington, which I think will be around the 29th of June.

In the meantime, I have been sent a copy of the Salisbury portrait of my husband which I think is just a colored photograph. However, I am sending you a copy of the letter and if you would like this picture for your office, I shall be happy to send it to you, as soon as I can have it packed and shipped. It is a good size and very nicely framed.

It is very kind of you to offer me the use of the office and the staff, and I shall keep it in mind. My trips to Washington are usually so hurried and so filled with engagements, I do not have much spare time.

With my very best wishes, I am,

Very cordially yours,
