I was very glad to hear from you & I apprec your writing for my birthday.

You must have had a difficult time with a broken ankle. I'm glad to know you & Mr D are both well, & still enjoying the west.

I am busier than ever with my work with the UN & in late hour I shall have

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt –

As the 11th of October approaches I realize more and more how delinquent I've been in not sending a message – long ago this – acknowledging your kind note – and to tell you how much Tom and I enjoyed our visit of just six months ago coming the 11th – your birthday.

We think and speak of you often and admire your courage – Tom tolerance is wonderful - The world needs more like you -

We have had several letters from Hick and she seems to be enjoying her work and life in the country -

Except for a broken ankle - I suffered on July 18th - we have both been very well and still love the West -

With love and all
best wishes for a happy birthday

Cordially & sincerely

Clarissa Church Wilson

Kind wishes

list of letters you receive and feel it necessary to answer - so in silence we think of you and enjoy reading of your progress in a world which needs so much better under-
