Ed1 - Ef

Thanks no way of having published

209 W. 60 Street
New York N.Y.
Aug. 20, 1947

My Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

This poem I wrote in honor of the late President Roosevelt.

Many influential People consulted me about sending it to you for advise upon Publishing

I have also other poems that I have written

Respectfully yours
Elvira Edmead

Jan. 5, 1939

library

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Our President is like a man , a man of long ago he is like a prophet brave and true
Oh how he fought for liberty and gained too
His foes opposed him one by one, yet he stood with them as man with man.
And since he now their confidence has gained , he rules our land and that with fame.
Let us give honor to his name, he is a man that God has ordained.
Then for him to keep this place, we must pray that God will give him grace.
When his task on earth is done, a crown shall be given
Him above

E.EDMEAD

Edmead

WEDDING BOUQUETS

FUNERAL SPRAYS

JO'S FLOWER SHOP

T. D. S.
TELEGRAPH DELIVERY SERVICE
5022 NEWPORT AVENUE
SAN DIEGO 7, CALIFORNIA

CORSAGES
POTTED PLANTS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION

Feb. 1-1947

Mrs Elanor Roosevelt.

Dear Madam:

A Radio contest here on the coast Calls for a letter on Why we suffort the march of dimes. I have submitted the following, in memory of you loving husband. I hope you like it.

To a great humanatarian, living for all times to his loving memory, we have the march of dimes, not to show his passing to show our grief or sorrow
but that the crippled kids today may walk around tomorrow.

Fred S. Edwards,
5022 newport
San Diego Calif.