Dear Mrs Roosevelt,

It has greatly troubled me that I have in two years of Village dwelling, the consistant ill luck never to meet you!

I know how busy you are. But Please be my guest. Sit by my fire and partake of some kitchen-concoction in the "genteel poverty" of my home. I live near by and "only" two flights up!

Long have I loved and admired you. Please say you'll come!

Sincerely yours, Dolores Fyfe

10 Barrow St.
New York City —

Dear Mrs Roosevelt,

I am so sorry that you are unable to come. I told Josh White about having written to you and he warned me that this would happen! He said I should have been wiser to have invited myself to tea with you! Had you come here, very likely I would have burned the tea anyway, and the fireplace would probably decided to smoke us out!

I am very proud of your letter to me. Thank you very much —

And I am quite determined, since you suggest a possible meeting in the Spring, to present myself — on your doorstep along with the arrival — of the Very First robin!

My love to you — and my wishes for your Health and Happiness.

Very sincerely yours,

Dolores Tufts
