George VI

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

October 27th 1947

Dear Mrs Roosevelt,

The Queen & I are very glad to hear that you intend to visit this country next April, in connection with the unveiling of President Roosevelt's statue in London.

It would give us both great pleasure if you could come to Windsor Castle on Saturday April 3rd & spend the week end with us.

We both look forward greatly to seeing you again & to talking over with you all that has happened in the world since we last met.

Believe me

Yours very sincerely

George R.

Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt
