Hat-Hy

[Hutcheson]

American Baptist
Theological Seminary
White's Creek Pike
Nashville, Tennessee
December 27, 1947

Thanks
library

Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt
Hyde Park
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Permit me to enclose this poem that I have tried to compose about your great husband.

President Roosevelt was one of the truly great men of this age. He worked untiringly in the service of his country, and for the betterment of mankind.

In his passing we have been deprived of a great Statesman, and a noble American.

But the great life that he has lived, will serve as an inspiration to generations unborn.

Finally, please accept this poem about your honoured husband, from your humble servant.

Sincerely yours
Ernest A. Hutcheson.

Franklin D. Roosevelt"

In a beautiful building at Hyde Park
There was born on a lovely day,
A handsome boy who was one day
to light a spark
Of freedom for mankind that it can never repay.

As time went on he attended Harvard
Where he proved himself a good student.
His brilliant mind while there was lifted skyward
For his mind was good and prudent.

F.D.R. selected a very fine wife Who like him descended from a very fine family.
Mrs. Roosevelt struggled with him in the battle of life
While many other husband were forced to face life singly.

In 1932 he became America's leader.
In a statement to the nation he said
"The only thing to fear is fear."
This gave new life to people who were almost dead.

In 1941 on the seventh of December
The news was flashed around the world
Japan has struck Pearl Harbour, you remember.
Roosevelt then ordered America's flag of freedom unfurled!

On a sunny day in April in the Southland
President Roosevelt bowed his head,
With the strength failing his right hand
His breath left him, and he was pronounced dead.

E. A. Hutcheson.

1101 Brighton ave.,
Pittsburgh Pa
April 9, 1947

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt
Hyde Park N.Y.
Dear Madam
I am sending you this Hymn, one of my favorites
in memory of my friend
the Late, Pres. F. D. Roosevelt, who did so much for me
during the dark days of the depression.

Sincerly
Marie Hutchinson

the Hearts of men, the Late, Ans. J. D. Rosevelt.

Dedicated to my friend Rev. E.W.D. Isaac, Nashville, Tenn.

When I've Done My Best

(A Sacred Masterpiece)

As sung by Mrs Fannie Washington
Louisville, Ky.

By THOMAS A. DORSEY
Writer of "How About You"

Slow with Spirit

When I've done the best I can, If my friends don't un-der-stand,
When I've done the best I can, And I'm near the Promised Land,

Then my Lord will car-ry me Home. Aft-er I have done my best,
Then my Lord will car-ry me Home. When my best I've tried to live,

I will find a peaceful rest When my Savior carries me home. Ma-ny griefs and sorrows I have My mistakes He will for-give When my Savior carries me home. When my day is o-ver and the witnessed on my part, On that bright to-mor-row, He will mend and heal my wounded heart, ev'ning shadows fall, Faith will cross me o-ver, When I hear my Mas-ter sweet-ly call,

When the best I've done for Thee, Then the best comes back to me, When my Savior carries me home.
In my friends the best I see, May they see the best in me, When my Savior carries me home.

Do not print Ballads of these Songs—
PENALTY

Copyright 1931 by Thomas A. Dorsey, Publisher, 755 Oakwood Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

"Songs that Carry a Message"

While He's Passing By—10c
Jesus My Comforter — 10c
How About You?—20c
If You See My Savior—15c
Don't You Need My Savior Too?—10c
There's Something About the Lord—10c

In Memory of My Friend, Whose Kindness will

Hyer

June 20, 1947

Mrs. Eleanore Roosevelt
c/o The World Telegram
125 Barely
New York City

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

In your column of Wednesday, June 18th you voiced your personal opinion as to our President's courage in vetoing the tax bill and you no doubt are aware your column is widely read.

While everyone is entitled to his own opinion a person in your position should definitely ascertain true facts before making an obviously erroneous statement. Your reference to the benefits in the vetoed tax bill that would accrue to corporations is in fact a false statement. I am enclosing a copy of the bill which you will note deals only with the individual and makes no reference to corporations, nor did it alter in any way present rates paid by corporations.

It is my honest opinion that statements so flagrantly untrue call for correction in a future column.

Very truly yours,

Raymond T. Hyer

Raymond T. Hyer
46 Firwood Road
Port Washington, New York

Careless about my wording

I have corrected
my statement in
the column published
June 27th

Hyer -

In ans to your letter of June 20, referring to my Column of June 18th, you are quite right. I should not have mentioned corporations in talking about the Tax Bill which deals entirely with income taxes. I knew that quite well but I had it clearly in my mind that it is the ~~type~~ ~~group of~~ people ~~who~~ in corporations who profit through them ~~corporation~~ that I was

Careless about my
wording

I have corrected
my statement in
the column published
June 27th