NEIGENCO

NELSON
1630 N. Sycamore
Ave.,
Jany. 23. '47.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt.

Only a week ere Jany. 30 comes again! (The part that gives me comfort is being able to do what I can by contributing to dear President Roosevelt's fund, that was so close to his heart.) And always when I think of him I think of you. So brave.

nelson

2) But this world has always been such a lonely place since he went away. I never saw him, I did not need to. His spirit is with us all, everywhere, now. His good influences. But I am still very lonely.

And so foolish was I! I said to myself in April 1945 - my Johnnie

I is coming home. I'll never be any thing but real happy long as I live! And 2 das. after Johnnie came our beloved President Roosevelt passed on! John drove in

2) But this world has always been such a lonely place since he went away. I never saw him, I did not need to. His spirit is with us all, everywhere, now. His good influences. But I am still very lonely.

And so foolish was I! I said to myself in April 1945 - my Johnnie

8/ is coming home & I never to carry this terrible heavy burden as I live! And 2 days after Johnnie came our Beloved President Roosevelt passed on! John drove in & this night, from Lodi at once to see if I was sick or welcome by the church. He knew how I loved him & Johnnie died too - & this over Johnny - dear

4) in England

I wish you and Mrs. A. B. - and her Johnnie, all of your distinguished family the best, early this New Year, and throughout all the years.

My love and respect to you all. - I think of you very, very often.

(Mrs.) Belle Nelson.

Jany. 23 - 1947.