EXECUTIVE ORDER

-----O-----

EXEMPTION OF CHARLES HOLZMAN FROM COMPULSORY RETIREMENT
FOR AGE

WHEREAS section 204 of the act of June 30, 1932, 47 Stat. 382, 404 (5 U. S. C., sec. 715a), provides:

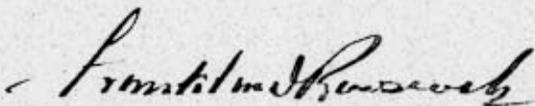

"On and after July 1, 1932, no person rendering civilian service in any branch or service of the United States Government or the municipal government of the District of Columbia who shall have reached the retirement age prescribed for automatic separation from the service, applicable to such person, shall be continued in such service, notwithstanding any provision of law or regulation to the contrary: Provided, That the President may, by Executive Order, exempt from the provisions of this section any person when, in his judgment, the public interest so requires * * * * ;

AND WHEREAS the public interest requires that Charles Holzman, clerk, United States Soldiers' Home, Washington, D.C., who, during the current month, will reach the retirement age prescribed for automatic separation from the service, be exempted from the provisions of this section and continued in the service until March 1, 1937:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the aforesaid section, I do hereby exempt Charles Holzman from the provisions thereof and continue him in the service until March 1, 1937.

SELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE CENTRAL STATISTICAL BOARD

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the act of July 25, 1935, 49 Stat. 496, I hereby order as follows:

1. The thirteen members, other than the Chairman, of the Central Statistical Board (hereinafter referred to as the "Board") established by the said act shall be selected as follows:

(a) Six members of the Board shall be designated members. One designated member shall be named by each of the following officers from among the officials or employees subject to his direction as such officer:

The Secretary of the Treasury

The Secretary of the Interior

The Secretary of Agriculture

The Secretary of Commerce

The Secretary of Labor

The Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

(b) Seven members of the Board shall be elected by the Chairman and the six designated members within two months after the date of the organization of the Board, which, for the purposes of this order, shall be the date that the Central Statistical Committee established by the said act shall declare that seven members have qualified for membership in the Board: Provided, however, that not less than four of such elected members shall be persons already in the service of the United States: And provided further, that at least one of such elected members shall be a person who is not, during his tenure of membership, a permanent paid employee of the Federal Government.

2. The term of membership of a designated member shall be at the pleasure of the officer authorized to designate such member, but such term shall not exceed two years without redesignation. The term of membership of an elected member shall be two years from the date of his election unless sooner terminated by the President in his discretion: Provided, that members elected in the calendar year 1956 shall be elected for one year only. If any member shall sever his connection with the department or agency of the Federal Government to which he is attached at the time of his designation or election, his membership shall become vacant upon the date of the severing of such connection, and, in accordance with the provisions of this order, his successor shall be designated or elected for the unexpired term of such membership within two months after such vacancy shall have occurred: Provided, however, that if the membership of any elected member shall become vacant within three months prior to its expiration date, such membership may, at the discretion of the Board, be left vacant for the unexpired term. If any membership shall become vacant for any reason other than the reasons hereinbefore set forth, such membership shall within two months be filled for the unexpired term in the manner hereinbefore prescribed.

EXEMPTION OF CHARLES J. EVANS FROM COMPULSORY RETIREMENT
FOR AGE

WHEREAS section 204 of the act of June 30, 1932, 47 Stat.
382, 404 (5 U.S.C., sec. 715a), provides:

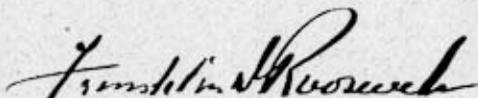

"On and after July 1, 1932, no person rendering civilian service in any branch or service of the United States Government or the municipal government of the District of Columbia who shall have reached the retirement age prescribed for automatic separation from the service, applicable to such person, shall be continued in such service, notwithstanding any provision of law or regulation to the contrary: Provided, That the President may, by Executive Order, exempt from the provisions of this section any person when, in his judgment, the public interest so requires * * *";

AND WHEREAS the public interest requires that Charles J.
Evans, appraiser of merchandise, Bureau of Customs, Treasury Department, who, during the current month, will reach the retirement age prescribed for automatic separation from the service, be exempted from the provisions of this section and continued in the service until March 1, 1937;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the aforesaid section, I do hereby exempt Charles J. Evans from the provisions thereof and continue him in the service until March 1, 1937.

When in a travel status allowances for subsistence shall be computed as follows for the day of departure from and arrival at station: The day to begin at midnight; for 18 hours or more in travel status, one whole day; for 12 hours or more but less than 18 hours in travel status, two-thirds of one day; for less than 12 hours in travel status, one-third of one day. No allowance shall be paid for the first day of a journey which begins after 6 o'clock p.m.

Note 2. In determining the allowance for quarters a fractional part of a day will be computed as a whole day, the day to begin at midnight. No allowance shall be paid for the first day of a journey which begins after 6 o'clock p.m.

Note 3. Men absent under orders from their regular stations upon duty which involves travel and also temporary detentions during the journey shall be deemed to be traveling under orders during the entire period of such absence. Allowances for the periods spent in actual travel, including detentions not exceeding three days, will be computed as on a "travel status" basis. Allowances for periods of detention in excess of three days shall be as indicated in Table II. For longer periods of detention at one place, the allowances prescribed in Table I will govern after the first thirty-one days.

This order supersedes Executive Orders No. 4728 of September 29, 1927, No. 5022 of January 5, 1929, No. 5256 of January 3, 1930, No. 5288 of February 26, 1930, No. 6605 of February 17, 1934, and No. 7224 of November 13, 1935.

IN THE POSTAL SERVICE OF MRS. NELL J. KLINE

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the provisions of paragraph Eighth of subdivision SECOND of section 2 of the Civil Service Act of January 16, 1883 (22 Stat. 403,404), it is hereby ordered that the time limit specified by civil-service rule IX may be waived to permit the reinstatement of Mrs. Nell J. Kline to a clerical position in the Postal Service.

Mrs. Kline, under her maiden name of Nell J. Briggs, was a temporary and classified employee of the Postal Service in the Memphis, Tennessee, post office, from November 12, 1917, to September 25, 1919, when she resigned. She is the widow of Post Office Inspector Edgar H. Kline, who recently died while traveling in connection with his official duties.

This order is issued on the recommendation of the Postmaster General.

ESTABLISHING LAKE BOWDOIN MIGRATORY WATERFOWL REFUGE

MONTANA

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me as President of the United States, and in order to effectuate further the purposes of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act (45 Stat. 1222), it is hereby ordered (1) that all the following-described public lands, surveyed or unsurveyed, be, and they are hereby, reserved and set apart for the use of the Department of Agriculture as a refuge and breeding ground for migratory birds and other wildlife; and (2) that such part of said lands as the Secretary of Agriculture may deem proper be reserved for use as a shooting area to be operated under a cooperative agreement or lease with the Montana State Game Commission or such other operating agency as may be approved, and under such regulations as may from time to time be adopted by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Most of the lands involved have been withdrawn for reclamation purposes in connection with the Milk River Irrigation Project in Montana, and are primarily under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior. The reservation of these lands as a migratory-waterfowl refuge is subject to the use thereof by said Department for irrigation and other incidental purposes and to any other existing valid rights.

TO PROVIDE FOR THE PROTECTION AND PRESERVATION OF THE DOMESTIC SOURCES OF TIN

WHEREAS section 2 of an act of Congress approved February 15, 1936, entitled "AN ACT To provide for the protection and preservation of the domestic sources of tin", provides:

"There shall not be exported from the United States after the expiration of sixty days from the enactment of this Act any tin-plate scrap, except upon license issued by the President of the United States. The President is authorized to grant licenses upon such conditions and regulations as he may find necessary to assure in the public interest fair and equitable consideration to all producers of this commodity."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN DELANEY ROOSEVELT, President of the United States, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the aforesaid act, do hereby delegate to the Secretary of State as Chairman of the National Munitions Control Board the power to grant licenses for the exportation of tin-plate scrap upon such conditions and under such regulations as he may find necessary to assure in the public interest fair and equitable consideration to all producers of this commodity, and as he may prescribe by and with the advice and consent of the Board.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE PREPARATION, PRESENTATION, FILING, AND DISTRIBUTION OF EXECUTIVE ORDERS AND PROCLAMATIONS

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Federal Register Act, approved July 26, 1935 (49 Stat. 500), and as President of the United States, I hereby prescribe the following regulations governing the preparation, presentation, filing, and distribution of Executive orders and proclamations:

1. Proposed Executive orders and proclamations shall be prepared in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) A suitable title for the order or proclamation shall be provided.

(b) The authority under which the order or proclamation is promulgated shall be cited in the body thereof.

(c) Punctuation, capitalization, orthography, and other matters of style shall conform to the most recent edition of the Style Manual of the United States Government Printing Office.

(d) The spelling of geographic names shall conform to the most recent official decisions made pursuant to Executive Orders No. 27-A, of September 4, 1890, No. 399, of January 23, 1906, and No. 6880, of April 17, 1934.

(e) Descriptions of tracts of lands shall conform, so far as practicable, with the most recent edition of the "Specifications for Descriptions of Tracts of Land for Use in Executive Orders and Proclamations", published by the Federal Board of Surveys and Maps.

(f) Proposed Executive orders and proclamations shall be typewritten on paper approximately 8 by 12-1/2 inches, shall have a left-hand margin of approximately 2 inches and a right-hand margin of approximately 1 inch, and shall be double-spaced, except that quotations, tabulations, or descriptions of land may be single-spaced.

2. The proposed Executive order or proclamation shall first be submitted to the Director of the Bureau of the Budget. If the Director of the Bureau of the Budget approves it, he shall transmit it to the Attorney General for his consideration as to both form and legality. If the Attorney General approves it, he shall transmit it to the Director of the Division of the Federal Register, the National Archives. If it conforms to the requirements of paragraph 1 hereof, the Director of the Division of the Federal Register shall transmit it and three copies thereof to the President. If it is disapproved by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget or the Attorney General, it shall not thereafter be presented to the President unless it is accompanied by the statement of the reasons for such disapproval.

3. If the order or proclamation is signed by the President, the original and two copies thereof shall be forwarded to the Director of the Division of the Federal Register for appropriate action in conformity with the provisions of the Federal Register Act: Provided, however, That the seal of the United States shall be affixed to the originals of all proclamations prior to such forwarding. The Division of the Federal Register shall cause to be placed upon the copies of all Executive orders and proclamations the following notation, to be signed by the Director or by some person authorized by him: "Certified to be a true copy of the original." The Division of the Federal Register shall number and shall supervise the promulgation, publication, and distribution of all Executive orders and proclamations.

4. The Division of the Federal Register shall cause a limited number of copies of the Executive orders and proclamations not required or authorized to be filed and published under the provisions of the Federal Register Act to be made available in slip form to the appropriate agencies of the Government.

5. The Division of the Federal Register shall file in the National Archives the originals of all Executive orders and proclamations.

6. The signed originals and copies of all Executive orders and proclamations heretofore promulgated and now in the custody of the Department of State shall be transferred to the National Archives.

7. Nothing in this order shall be construed to apply to treaties, conventions, protocols, and other international agreements, or proclamations thereof by the President.

8. This order shall become effective on March 12, 1936, and shall thereupon supersede Executive Order No. 6247, of August 10, 1933.

VIRGIN ISLANDS

WHEREAS certain lands in the Virgin Islands, hereinafter more particularly described by reference to plat marked "Exhibit A" and attached hereto and made a part hereof, have been acquired by the United States under the Second Deficiency Act, Fiscal Year 1931 (46 Stat. 1552, 1570), which provides, in part, that certain funds therein appropriated--

*** may be expended under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Governor of the Virgin Islands and approved by the President: (1) For the acquisition, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, of land and the construction of buildings for use in administering the affairs of the islands or promoting their welfare; (2) for the purchase of land for sale as homesteads to citizens of the Virgin Islands; (3) for cooperation with the Department of Agriculture in the experimental cultivation of such lands; and (4) for loans for the construction of buildings, purchase of farming implements and equipment, and for other expenses incident to the cultivation of said lands; "

WHEREAS the said lands are now under the jurisdiction and control of the Secretary of the Interior by virtue of Executive Order No. 5566, of February 27, 1931, issued pursuant to the act of March 3, 1917, ch. 171, 39 Stat. 1132;

WHEREAS it appears that it would be in the public interest and would promote the welfare of the Virgin Islands to transfer the said lands to the control and jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Navy for the hereinafter-stated purposes; and

WHEREAS the said lands are no longer needed for other purposes, except as hereinafter indicated:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the said act of March 3, 1917, and the said Second Deficiency Act, Fiscal Year 1931, and as President of the United States, it is ordered that all the lands designated on the plat marked "Exhibit A" attached hereto and made a part hereof, the exact boundaries of which are to be determined hereafter by survey to be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, be, and they are hereby, subject to valid existing rights, transferred from the control and jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior to the control and jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Navy for use in the establishment, construction, and operation of aviation facilities.

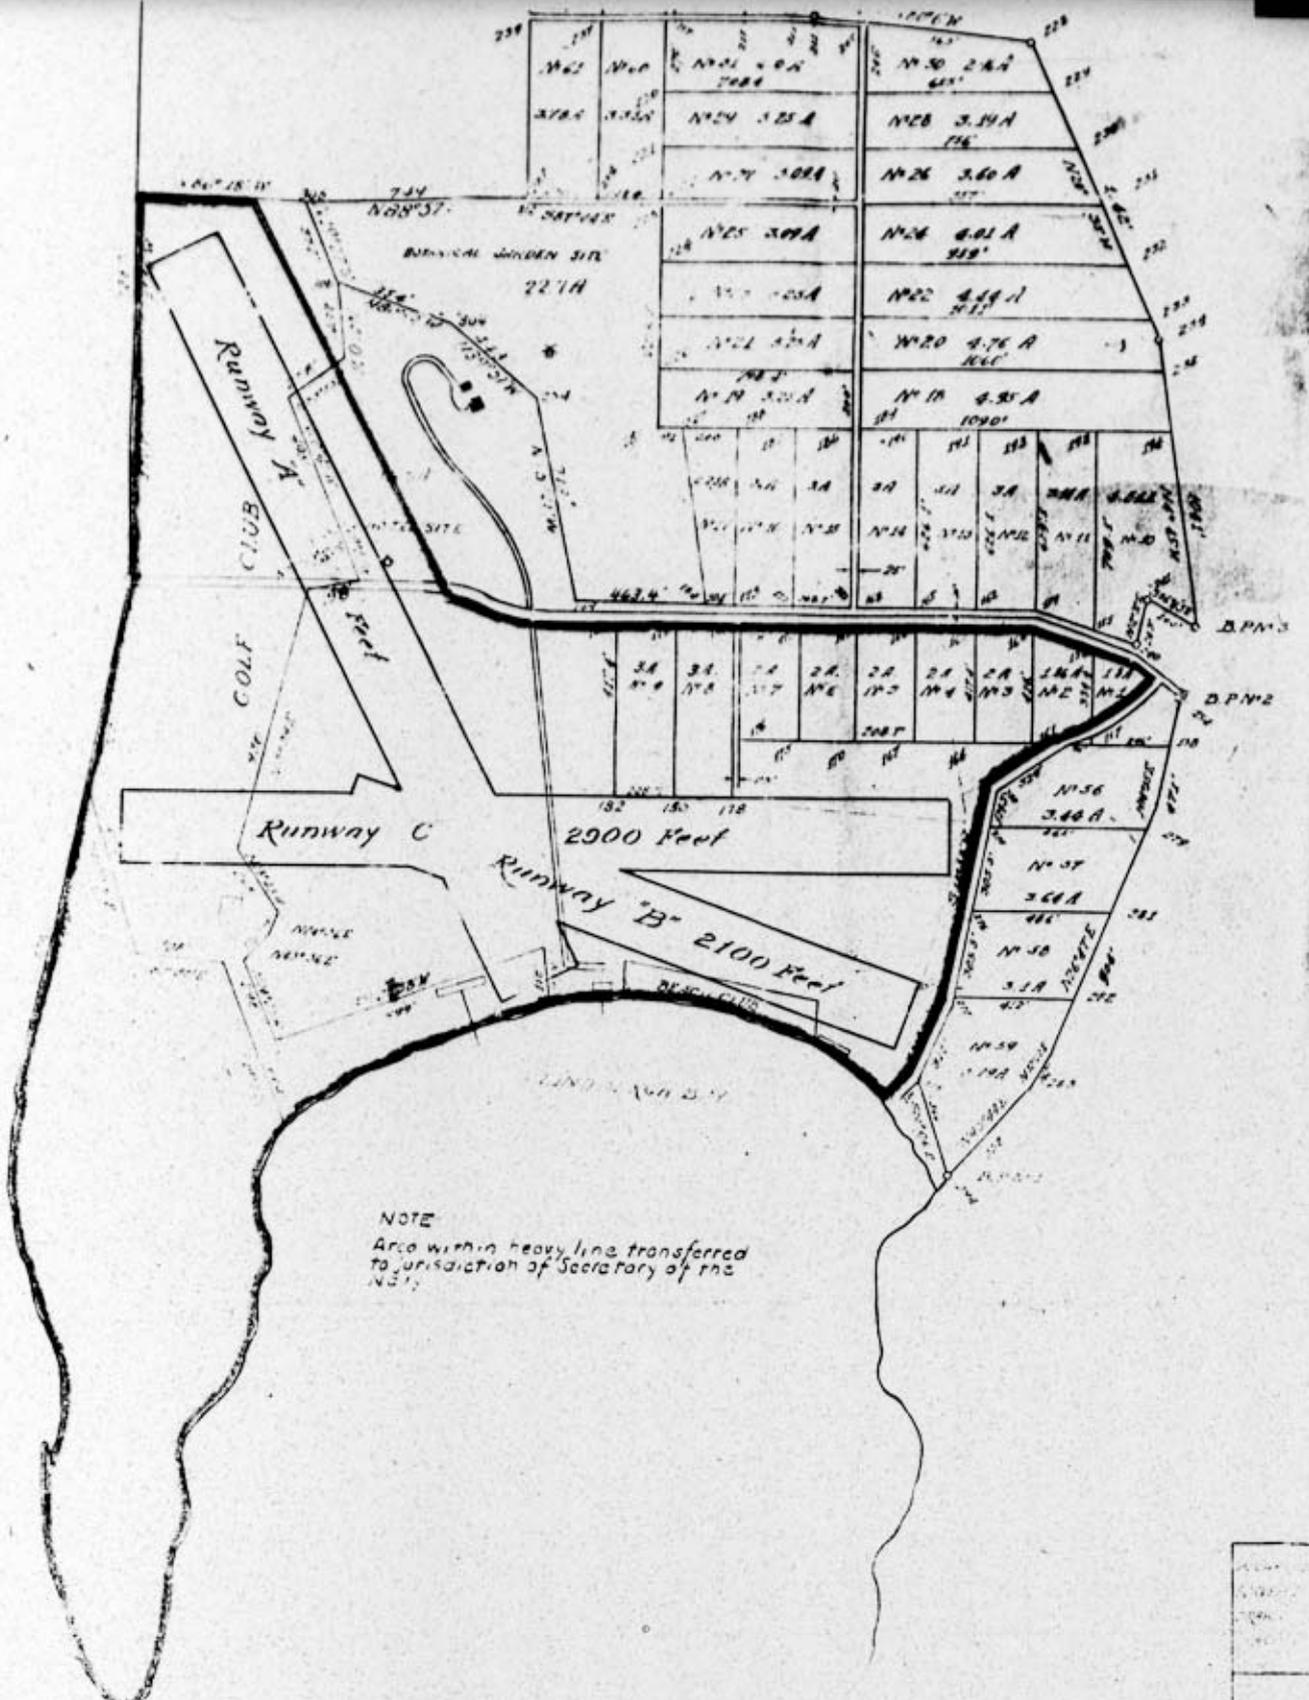

There are hereby excepted from the operation of this transfer (1) the east beach and bath house fronting on Lindbergh Bay, and (2) the existing golf house and its connected recreational facilities, these areas to be described more particularly hereafter by survey to be approved by the Secretary of the Interior. The use of these excepted areas during seaplane operations shall be governed by such regulations as may be issued by the officer of the Navy Department charged by the Secretary of the Navy with the establishment, control, and operation of aviation facilities in the Virgin Islands.

ALLOCATING FUNDS TO THE FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION AND PRESCRIBING RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE MAK-ING OF EMERGENCY CROP LOANS UNDER THE EMERGENCY RELIEF APPROPRIATION ACT OF 1955

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1955 (49 Stat. 115), it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. There is set aside from funds provided by the said Act for the use of the Farm Credit Administration for the purpose of making loans to farmers during the year 1956, under limitation (b) in section 1 of the said Act, in the United States, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, for fallowing, for the production of crops, for planting, cultivating, and harvesting crops, for supplies incident to and necessary for such production, planting, cultivating, and harvesting, and for feed for livestock, or for any of such purposes, under such terms and conditions as the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration (hereinafter referred to as the Governor) may prescribe, a sum not to exceed $50,000,000, of which the sum of $7,000,000 is hereby allocated to the said Administration to be supplemented from time to time by such additional allocations as may be necessary.

2. The amount which may be lent to any one borrower shall not exceed $200, and each applicant for a loan shall establish to the satisfaction of the proper officer or employee of the Farm Credit Administration, under such conditions as the Governor may prescribe, that the applicant is unable to procure such loans from any other source: Provided, that preference shall be given to the applications of farmers whose cash requirements are small.

5. Loans made under the provisions of this Order shall be secured by a first lien, or by an agreement to give a first lien, upon all crops of which the production, planting, cultivating, or harvesting is to be financed, in whole or in part, with the proceeds of such loan, or, in case of any loan for the purchase or production of feed for livestock, a first lien upon the livestock to be fed. Such loans shall be made and collected under such regulations as the Governor shall prescribe, and shall bear interest at the rate of 5 1/2 per centum per annum.

4. Fees for recording, filing, registration, and examination of records (including certificates) in connection with each loan made hereunder shall be paid by the borrower: Provided, however, that such fees aggregating not to exceed seventy-five cents per loan may be paid by him from the proceeds of his loan. No fees for releasing liens given to secure loans shall be paid from the funds made available hereunder.

5. The funds hereby or hereafter allocated may be used also for all necessary administrative expenses in carrying out the provisions of this Order to and including June 30, 1957.

6. In carrying out the provisions of this Order, the Farm Credit Administration may (a) make expenditures for supplies and equipment, traveling expenses, rental of offices, printing and binding, and other necessary expenses, and

(b) accept voluntary and uncompensated services, appoint officers and employees without regard to the provisions of the Civil Service laws and regulations, and fix the compensation of any officers and employees so appointed without regard to the Classification Act of 1923, as amended.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

AMENDMENT OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 6928

OF DECEMBER 24, 1934

Section 3(e) of Executive Order No. 6928 of December 24, 1934, prescribing regulations for payment of losses sustained by officers, enlisted men, and employees of the United States in foreign countries on account of appreciation of foreign currencies in their relation to the American dollar, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"(e) In case of employees employed in or on assignment or detail to posts in countries having local laws and regulations preventing or limiting, subsequent to April 1, 1934, conversion of local currency into foreign exchange, their net salary and net allowances while they are at their post of duty in such country may be converted in a country other than that in which they are stationed and the losses so sustained since April 1, 1934, or hereafter sustained thereon, shall be reimbursed, but in no case in an amount greater than would have been reimbursable had the net salary and net allowances been converted at the post of duty: Provided, that if in any country having such laws and regulations, the rate at which foreign currencies may be exchanged into the local currency is fixed on the basis of the currency of a third country, net salary and net allowances may be converted in a country other than that in which stationed and the loss so sustained shall be reimbursed, but in no such case in an amount greater than would have been reimbursable had net salary and net allowances been converted in the third country the currency of which is used as the basis for the rate at which foreign currencies may be exchanged into the currency of the country in which stationed."

This order shall be effective as of February 1, 1936.

ENLARGING CAPE ROMAIN MIGRATORY BIRD REFUGE
SOUTH CAROLINA

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me as President of the United States, and in order to effectuate further the purpose of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act (45 Stat. 1222), it is ordered that the following-described area, acquired by the United States, in Charleston County, South Carolina, with all buildings thereon, be, and it is hereby, reserved and set apart for the use of the Department of Agriculture, subject to valid existing rights, as an addition to the Cape Romain Migratory Bird Refuge, established under the said Migratory Bird Conservation Act:

Being all of what is known as Bull Island, lying on the southwest side of Bull Bay, between Price Creek and Bull Creek, and the Atlantic Ocean, and about three miles off the mainland of South Carolina, and about fourteen miles southwest of McClellanville, South Carolina. The following survey was executed under the direction of the Bureau of Biological Survey, Department of Agriculture, in June and July 1935. All bearings in this description were turned from the true meridian as determined by altitude observations on the sun during the progress of the survey, and all distances are expressed in chains.

Beginning at corner No. 1, a point at the edge of the marsh on the north side of Bull Island, on the west side of Jacks Creek which bears S. 40°30'E., at the junction of Jacks Creek with Bull Harbor; from this corner a U.S.B.S. standard concrete post marked "1 NC COR 1 BULLS ISLAND 1935", set 18 in. in the ground for a witness corner on a small grassy sand ridge, bears S. 16°57' E.,

8.01 chs. distant; from which witness corner a 10 in. white oak blazed and scribed "BT WC COR 1" bears N.  $56^{\circ}$  W., 0.23 ch. distant; an 8 in. white oak blazed and scribed "BT WC COR 1" bears S.  $5^{\circ}$  E., 0.24 ch. distant;

Thence from said initial point, with the north side of Bull Island, along the edge of the marsh with the meanders thereof, in part with the south shore of Bull Harbor and in part with Bull Bay,

N.  $51^{\circ}28'$  E., 12.27 chs. to a point across Jacks Creek, at its mouth, on the edge of the salt marsh on Bull Bay; thence,

N.  $21^{\circ}19'$  E., 4.43 chs.;

N.  $1^{\circ}54'$  E., 8.45 chs.;

S.  $88^{\circ}57'$  E., 18.80 chs.;

S.  $75^{\circ}39'$  E., 15.66 chs.;

N.  $85^{\circ}24'$  E., 15.98 chs. to a point at the edge of salt marsh and grass on Bull Bay;

Thence with mean high water along sandy beach and sand dunes,

N.  $31^{\circ}59'$  E., 17.19 chs.;

N.  $65^{\circ}32'$  E., 5.81 chs. to the northeasterly point of Bull Island; thence,

S.  $37^{\circ}27'$  E., 8.12 chs.;

S.  $22^{\circ}28'$  E., 19.26 chs. to corner No. 2, a point on the northeasterly end of the seashore of Bull Island, facing the Atlantic Ocean; from this corner a U.S.B.S. standard concrete post marked "2 WC COR 2 BULLS ISLAND 1935", set 18 in. in the ground for a witness corner on the west slope of a grassy sand dune about 2.00 chs. northeast of a dense growth of cedar, myrtle, and palmetto, bears S. 71°30' W., 0.50 ch. distant; from which witness corner a U.S.C. & G.S. concrete monument marked "BULL 1954" bears N. 67°48' W., 5.18 chs. distant; an 18 in. cedar blazed and scribed "BT WC COR 2" bears S. 15°00' W., 2.25 chs. distant; and palmettos were blazed for witness trees;

Thence, with mean high water along the east shore of Bull Island, with the meanders thereof, between the beach and a thick growth of pine, cedar, and palmetto,

S. 22°54' E., 8.82 chs.;

S. 1°07' E., 9.15 chs.;

S. 15°51' W., 19.17 chs.;

S. 14°50' W., 17.21 chs.;

-----

AMENDMENT OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 7164, OF AUGUST 29, 1935, PRESCRIBING RULES AND REGULATIONS RELATING TO STUDENT-AID PROJECTS AND TO EMPLOYMENT OF YOUTH ON OTHER PROJECTS UNDER THE EMERGENCY RELIEF APPROPRIATION ACT OF 1935

AMENDMENT TO REGULATION NO. 7

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, approved April 8, 1935 (Public Res. 11, 74th Cong.), sections 1 and 3 of regulation no. 7, prescribed by Executive Order No. 7164, of August 29, 1935, are hereby amended to read as follows:

"1. Definition of student-aid projects.

Student-aid projects are hereby defined to be projects financed, in whole or in part, from funds appropriated by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, which provide financial assistance to needy young people in amounts which will permit them to continue their education in primary schools, high schools, colleges, or graduate schools, in exchange for part-time work upon useful projects."

"3. Amount of aid. Disbursement of student-aid funds shall conform to the following requirements:

(a) No primary-school or high-school student shall be paid more than $6 per month for the school year.

(b) No college student shall be paid more than $20 per month for the school year, and the average of all payments made to college students during the school year shall not exceed $15 per month per student.

(c) No graduate student shall be paid more than $40 per month for the school year, and the average of all payments made to graduate students during the school year shall not exceed $30 per month per student."
