Sec. 5. Employees transferred or reappointed without break in service from one permanent position to another permanent position within the same or a different governmental agency shall at the time of the transfer be credited with accumulated leave and charged with unaccrued leave advanced.

Sec. 6. An employee voluntarily separated from the service without prejudice during any calendar year shall be entitled to all accumulated leave plus current accrued leave up to the date of separation.

Sec. 7. The date of a discharge of an employee who is involuntarily separated from the service other than for cause due to his own misconduct shall be fixed to permit the allowance of all accumulated leave and current accrued leave.

Sec. 8. Leave shall be granted at such time or times as may be deemed to be in the public interest.

Of temporary employees, only those who subsequently accept permanent appointments without break in service may be credited with accumulated leave earned prior to January 1, 1936.

Sec. 16. Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to prevent the continuance of any leave differential existing prior to January 1, 1936, for the benefit of employees of the Federal Government stationed without the continental limits of the United States.

Sec. 17. The annual leave authorized by these regulations shall, except as to temporary employees, be recorded and administered on a calendar-year basis.

Sec. 18. The heads or governing bodies of the various governmental agencies to which this Executive Order applies shall be responsible for the proper administration of these regulations insofar as they pertain to the granting of annual leave to employees under their respective jurisdiction; and they may, within the limits authorized by law, issue such regulations as are not inconsistent with these regulations.

PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS RELATING TO SICK LEAVE OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 7 of the act of March 14, 1936, entitled "An Act to standardize sick leave and extend it to all civilian employees" (Public No. 472, 74th Congress), I hereby prescribe the following regulations which shall apply to all civilian officers and employees (hereinafter referred to as "employee" or "employees") of the United States, the District of Columbia and all corporations falling within the provisions of section 6 of the said act except those hereinafter excluded under Part II of these regulations.

PART I - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 1. Sick leave with pay shall be granted to employees when they are incapacitated for the performance of their duties by sickness, injury, or pregnancy and confinement, or when some member of the immediate family of the employee is afflicted with a contagious disease and requires the care and attendance of the employee, or when, through exposure to contagious disease, the presence of the employee at his post of duty would jeopardize the health of others.

Sec. 2. Except as provided in section 3 hereof employees shall be entitled to sick leave at the rate of 1-1/4 days a month, and if such leave is not used it shall accumulate: Provided, That the total accumulation shall not exceed 90 days.

Sick leave accruing during any month of service shall be available at any time during the month.

Sec. 3. In cases of serious disability or ailments, and when the exigencies of the situation so require, sick leave may be advanced not in excess of 30 days in addition to the unused sick leave that has accumulated to the credit of employees: Provided, That such advances shall not be made to any employee more than 3 times during any one calendar year; that every case of advanced leave shall be supported by the certificate of a registered practicing physician or other practitioner; that the total of such advances shall not exceed at any time 30 days beyond the accumulated sick leave; and that such advances shall be charged against sick leave subsequently accumulating.

Sec. 4. When an employee applies for sick leave in excess of the amount accumulated to his credit and the circumstances do not justify such an advance, the excess leave applied for, if granted and used, shall be charged against any unused annual leave to which the employee is entitled, or, if there is no unused annual leave, the excess shall be charged as leave without pay, and such leave shall not thereafter be converted into either sick or annual leave subsequently accumulating.

Sec. 5. Sick leave shall not be advanced in an amount that would exceed the total that would accumulate during the period from the date of the advance to the termination of a limited appointment (not temporary in character) or one expiring on a specified date.

Sec. 6. Advance sick leave may be granted irrespective of whether the employee has to his credit unused annual leave.

Sec. 7. Sick leave shall not be granted for slight illness or indisposition not incapacitating the employee for the performance of his regular duties, or for absence for the purpose of being treated professionally by a dentist or oculist in his office; but sick leave may be granted for detention at home or in a hospital by illness or disability due to causes as to which a dentist or oculist is qualified to certify.

Sec. 8. Employees transferred or reappointed without break in service from one permanent position to another permanent position within the same or a different governmental agency shall be credited with accumulated sick leave and charged with sick leave previously advanced in excess of that accumulated at the time of transfer.

Sec. 9. Sick leave shall not accumulate during a period of leave without pay when such period is continuous for 30 days or more in any calendar year.

Sec. 10. In the case of voluntary separation or removal for cause of an employee to whom sick leave has been advanced in an amount in excess of that accumulated, the employee shall refund the amount paid him for the period of such excess, or deduction therefor shall be made from any salary due him or from any deductions in the retirement fund to his credit. This provision shall not apply in cases of death, retirement for age or disability, reduction of force, or when an employee who is not eligible for retirement is unable to return to duty because of disability, evidence of which shall be supported by an acceptable certificate from a registered practicing physician or other practitioner.

Sec. 11. Sundays, holidays and non-work days within a period of sick leave shall be charged as sick leave, except when immediately preceding or following a period of sick leave, if the employee was in a pay status immediately prior to or following such Sundays, holidays, or non-work days. For such days as per diem and per hour employees would not be in a pay status, no sick leave shall be charged.

Sec. 12. The minimum charge of absence on account of sickness, except on Saturdays or on other days where 4 hours constitute a full work day, shall be 1/2 day; additional fractions authorized on the same day shall be charged in multiples of one hour. On Saturdays, or other days where 4 hours constitute a full work day, 2 hours or less sick leave shall be charged as 1/2 day and more than 2 hours shall be charged proportionately.

Sec. 13. Notification of absence on account of sickness shall be given as soon as possible on the first day of absence. If such notification is not made in accordance with this regulation, such absence may be charged to annual leave or leave without pay. Application for sick leave shall be filed within two days after return to duty.

Sec. 14. Application for sick leave for a period in excess of 3 days shall be supported by the certificate of a registered practicing physician or other practitioner, except that in remote localities where such certificate cannot reasonably be obtained, the applicant's signed statement as to the nature of the illness and the reason why a certificate is not furnished, may be accepted. For periods of 3 days or less, up to an accumulation of 12 days in any one calendar year, the applicant's signed statement on a prescribed form may be accepted.

Sec. 15. When sickness continuing for more than 5 days occurs within a period of annual leave, the period of illness may, upon presentation of the certificate of a registered practicing physician or other practitioner, be charged as sick leave and the charge against annual leave granted reduced accordingly. No such charge shall be made for illness lasting for not more than 5 days. Application for such substitution of sick leave for annual leave shall be made within 2 days after the expiration of the annual-leave period.

Sec. 16. Sick leave may not be granted for a period immediately following a period of absence in a non-pay status, unless and until there has been a return to actual duty, nor may such leave without pay be converted into sick leave.

Sec. 17. Temporary employees shall be entitled to 1-1/4 days of sick leave for each month of service, but shall not be entitled to an advance of sick leave. Sick leave accumulated during temporary appointment shall be credited to an employee who receives a permanent appointment in the same governmental agency without break in service but shall not be transferable elsewhere under any circumstances. For sick leave purposes, those who are appointed for definite periods of time not exceeding 6 months will be considered temporary employees.

Sec. 18. In the case of an employee who was not entitled to sick leave under prior law, but who is now entitled thereto, sick leave as accumulated may be substituted for leave without pay or annual leave taken because of illness between January 1 and March 14, 1936.

Sec. 19. Sick leave taken in excess of 1-1/4 days a month during the period between January 1 and March 14, 1936, shall be charged against sick leave subsequently accumulating.

Sec. 20. Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to prevent the continuance of any sick leave differential existing prior to January 1, 1936, for the benefit of employees of the Federal Government stationed without the continental limits of the United States.

Sec. 21. The heads or governing bodies of the various governmental agencies to which this order applies shall be responsible for the proper administration of these regulations insofar as they pertain to the granting of sick leave to employees under their respective jurisdictions; and they may, within the limits authorized by law, issue such regulations as are not inconsistent with these regulations.

PART II - EMPLOYEES EXCEPTED

Sec. 22. These regulations shall not apply to:

(a) Teachers and librarians of the public schools of the District of Columbia;

(b) Officers and members of the police and fire departments of the District of Columbia, other than civilian personnel;

(c) Officers and employees of the Panama Canal and Panama Railroad on the Isthmus of Panama;

(d) Temporary employees engaged on construction work at hourly rates;

(e) The Postmaster General and officers and employees in or under the Post Office Department except those serving in the departmental service and in the Mail Equipment Shops;

(f) Persons paid security or prevailing wages from funds allotted by the Works Progress Administration on a state, municipal or other public but non-federal project or on a federal project: Provided, that sick leave shall be granted in accordance with these regulations to employees in the central office of the Works Progress Administration in the District of Columbia and at district and local headquarters, and to other employees in administrative or clerical positions who receive other than security or prevailing wages as prescribed in Executive Order No. 7046 of May 20, 1935;

(g) Employees not required to be continuously employed during regular tour of duty, such as: (1) employees who are paid only when actually employed; (2) per diem or per hour employees engaged in an emergency who may be employed for more than one 7- or 8-hour shift within 24 hours during the emergency; (3) part-time or intermittent employees; (4) persons engaged under contract; (5) employees engaged temporarily for less than a month on a piece-price basis; (6) employees who are paid at hourly rates but who are not engaged on construction work, such as mechanics, skilled laborers and others engaged in many services on maintenance, repair, clean-up work, and the like, where employment is more or less intermittent and not on a regular or continuous basis; and (7) employees paid on a fee basis, such as physicians, and surgeons, and other consultants.

PART III - RATIFICATION; REVOCATION; EFFECTIVE DATE

Sec. 1 (a) The Postmaster General may recommend to the President the appointment of the incumbent, or the appointment by promotion of a classified employee in the postal service in the vacancy office, provided either such incumbent or such classified employee is found eligible by the Civil Service Commission by noncompetitive examination; or

(b) Upon request of the Postmaster General, the Civil Service Commission shall forthwith hold an open competitive examination to test the fitness of applicants to fill such vacancy and shall certify the results thereof to the Postmaster General, who shall thereupon submit to the President for appointment to fill the vacancy the name of the highest eligible unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Civil Service Commission that the character or residence of such eligible disqualifies him for appointment. EXECUTIVE ORDER

AMENDMENT OF ARTICLE XXVIII OF THE CONSULAR REGULATIONS

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 1752 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title 22, sec. 132), it is ordered that Article XXVIII of the Consular Regulations be, and it is hereby, amended as follows:

1. The centered title preceding section 595 is changed to "Commercial reporting and reporting for other departments and independent establishments of the Government".

2. Section 595 is amended to read:

"595. Object and general character. The main object in view in the preparation of reports should be to supply accurate information for the use of the Government and American business concerns.

"Consular officers should take care that information given in reports is presented accurately and fully, and that facts or figures are not misconstrued in support of their individual theories or opinions. They should not, on the other hand, be mere transmitters of objective data. In addition to setting forth plainly and impartially statistics and positive information, the reporting officer should furnish, in distinct paragraphs, an analytical interpretation of the material presented, and, when appropriate, a full statement of his personal deductions and opinions.

"Data must be obtained, as far as possible, from official sources, and the origin must in all cases be clearly indicated. When quotations are given, they should be carefully designated as such with the proper quotation marks, in order that they may not be confused with individual views or conclusions by the writer. In those portions of reports which are intended for publication, reference to political or controversial matters should be omitted, and particular care should be exercised to avoid unfavorable comments or criticism upon the government, people, or institutions of the country.

"It is a part of a consular officer's duty to transmit promptly to the Department of State commercial and other information of a political or controversial nature whenever it appears that the interests of the United States, or of American commerce, may be served thereby; but such communications should be in the form of separate despatches or special sections of reports conspicuously marked 'Confidential', to indicate that they are intended for the information of the Government alone."

3. Section 597 is amended to read:

"597. Annual report on commerce and industry. As soon as possible after the close of each calendar year, every officer in charge of a consular office is required to submit, in accordance with the procedure established for his office, a report on the development of commerce and industry in his district during the previous year."

4. Section 597(a) is amended to read:

"597A. Current economic and commercial reports. In order that the Department may be kept informed throughout the year upon the economic developments that may be of interest to the American business public, concise, timely reports upon the commerce, finance, and industry of each consular district should be prepared as developments occur. These reports will be used for the information of the Department of State and by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the Department of Commerce in the preparation of its reviews of various countries and geographical units."

5. Section 598 is prescribed as follows:

"598. Reports on transportation. Consular officers should submit for the use of the Department of State and other interested departments and establishments of the Government, reports regarding transportation, terminal facilities, and coordination of the various forms of transportation."

6. Section 600 is amended to read:

"600. Voluntary reports. Consular officers are expected to report on their own initiative concerning all matters arising in their districts of a kind to be of use to American business concerns or to the various departments and independent establishments of the Government. In respect to many subjects it will not suffice to report accomplished facts, but officers should study the probable course of development in order that it may be pointed out in time to be of use."

7. Section 602 is amended to read:

"602. Information regarding foreign firms. There shall be maintained in each consular office a list or file of the principal commercial and industrial firms in the consular district, and this information shall be furnished the Secretary of State as he may direct. Brief special lists of foreign firms interested in specific classes of business (sec. 603C) and World Trade Directory reports on individual firms shall be prepared in accordance with specific directions from the Department."

8. The title of section 603(f) is changed to "Transmission of correspondence".

9. The title of section 603(h) is changed to "Consular officers not to act as agents".

10. The words "as usual" in the seventh line of section 603(j) are deleted.

11. Section 603(k) is amended to read:

"603K. Arbitration of disputes. Consular officers are not authorized to act as arbitrators in trade disputes. They may, however, submit with the usual waiver of responsibility the names of individuals considered best suited to act as arbitrators in the event that arbitration seems feasible.

"Surveys. Consular officers are sometimes asked to appoint boards of survey to examine and report on the condition of American merchandise imported into foreign countries of which complaint has been made by the importers. A consular officer has no statutory authority in this respect, and the findings of such a board would be without conclusive effect in the United States. Nevertheless, if the local law does not forbid, consular officers should accede to requests of this character, using their best efforts and judgment to find impartial experts competent to perform the work in hand. The findings of the board may be forwarded by the consular officer, through the Department of State, to the exporter in the United States, together with any comments he may consider appropriate. Oaths of the surveyors to their findings are unnecessary, but may be administered when requested by the person calling for the survey, a fee of $2 (item 33 of the tariff of fees) being charged."

12. The numbers of sections 603(a) to 603(m), inclusive, are changed to 603A, 603B, etc.
