Missis President Eleonor Roosevelt,
c/o. White House,
Washington, U.S.A.

Dear Missis:

I beg to write you, that my girl, Simona Hendler, has allways heard, during the war, of the kindness of the so much regreted President Franklin Roosevelt, so that she loved him so much, that she designed his picture and asked me to send it to him.

My girl is only 8 years old, and has astonished us with her imagination and skill in everything, but especially in designing.

She is a very nice and smart girl, and so kind, that I did not have the heart to tell her, when the previous President, who was loved by a whole world, died, because [illegible] would [illegible] every time she would remember

Dear Miss:

I beg to write you, that my girl, Simona Hendler, has allways heard during the war, of the kindness of the so much regreted President Franklin Roosevelt, so that she loved him so much, that she designed his picture and asked me to send it to him.-

My girl is only 8 years old, and has astonished us with her imagination and skill in everything, but especially in designing.-

She is a very nice and smart girl, and so kind, that I did not have the heart to tell her, when the previous President, who was loved by a whole world, died, because she would pay every time she would remember herself about him.-

Therefore I have to send this picture to you, hoping that you will be also satisfied in your heart, that a kid from far away, could love so much the great Statesman.-

My girl hopes, that we would be able to obtain the permission to establish ourselves in California in the States, and that she would have the possibility to follow there the American School, in which she has much hope.-

I shall remain dear Miss, yours most respectfully,

Hendler Spaul
