Dear Mrs Franklin De Lano Roosevelt: file

Words fail again - Why - as I am a Christian vs - vs - etc. in the one spirit of all lives, great or small, lowly & humble, merciful & just but not perfect. I is only God, the Great & Supreme Master, I hereby love & worship along with his other Principals among Worlds of Principalities that can be Perfect. The Principals have to look to the Supreme Master, my God, your God of the Universe or Firmaments of the Heavens. I do. Feet, we apparel Money - Dirty Wearing Apparel, et al. Penniless yesterday. I borrowed 60¢ from Mr Coleman + $1.00 from Ann Neeson, to avoid family argument & agitation. Why -

The G. I. Bill of Rights. Everything, Poor Irma wrote down for Chicago. all or Nothing; not a sue Markee. However.
I sued for Josie, my sister, the one I loved most, who did not get a fair deal, a martyr, a saint, all forgiving, lovely, & understanding. To Her I sparkled, why she knew the score & she passed away in her own Home, in her patience. Drink is no sin, it is a disease & George was a fine man otherwise, & my father liked him, he said he was good & never [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] I believe liked him a little better than his other son in laws, except Clayton, & he was fond of him too. Well — Cleveland — what next Ohio — will it be ma nunc or Uncle Sam — we have to be refined, even unto Moses to Magdala. Well Dear call Dr Gill nor O'Brien in Tech Mrs Roosevelt, I loved your Husband.

I admired his greatness & lowliness, & a wonderful orator. Say did you hear any loud noises or roars or broadcasts in NY from Cleveland's street car busses. I was mad. I called them all sorts of names, even told them there were better worlds than this dam stinking old low world, & I meant it I was forced too because of getting into family Power, for political Gain; not love, as my mother knew. You love your children as my mother did I am sure, & don't you love your youngest one a little more, the baby? I know my mother did one. If she were here, I would have my Hunt & Shoes & Pearl too & my father too, & affair would not be so bezieged Germance, Denmarker,

Roman Catholic ee. My mother asked me to uphold her people, as well as my fathers. She did not tell the rest what she told me, there were out of the house. ~~Now~~ my other remaining elder sisters say that Mother never Mother asked me to keep my teeth in good repair and said es. Well, why of course not, in (Can I you) will you clear & free me from attacking from them, I was ~~[illegible]~~ child always & even sat on her lap until I was 12 or 14 years old, I mean half on the arm chair & half on her lap, she was tickled, she loved it & affect on too. Say Mrs Roosevelt, do you suppose the following Countries - nations can and me now to send some "Care Money" to me for shoes, top winters laundry, Hair fixing & teeth repair & money for my piano & rings & furniture & House alone. Would you ask them to pray for me, pray for me the following to get to Egypt & the Far East by 1960? Egypt, Spain, Portugal, Belgium, Bavaria, Bohemia, Austria, Hungary, Arabia, Brazil, Peru, Persia, India, Burma, Japan, China, Russia, Turkey, Wales.
