Roosevelt

Thank you

Mr. Antunes de Mattos, who is one of Brazil's outstanding poets and a personal friend of mine, asked me to hand to you a copy of a poem he wrote in honor of the late President.

Since I am in New York only today, I did not find any other way of delivering it to you except by leaving it here at the Headquarters.

I shall be lecturing in Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, during the fall quarter and then will return to my country.

Very respectfully yours

Oscar Machado.
