SLINEY

Hampton, Ky.
Mar. 26, 1946-

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt: I do not know how to get in touch with you except through The Ladies' Home Journal.

I am sending you a poem that I have written and I sincerely hope you will like it.

I read your columns and enjoy them.

Very kindly,

Mrs. Irene Sliney
Hampton,
Ky.

"One Among Many"

The greatest president by far
Was our own beloved F D R
His brilliant mind
Was ever on the grind
With problems of the race
Which we all have to face
His sojourn on earth
Was short from birth
For humanity he did slave
Until he reached the grave
He loved the world as a whole
With all his might and soul
Knowledge he did pursue
To help build this world anew
Then he went away
On that sad April Day
May I extend to him this compliment
His work and influence
Stands out as a monument

Mrs. Irene Sliney
