Dear Mr. President,

We are wholly in accord with your move to establish a refugee camp for 1000 refugees. However, we feel that the vast majority of Americans would applaud an extension of this plan for temporary refuge.

We should have more camps set aside at once for more refugees.

May we hope for your favorable consideration of this plea?

Very truly yours,
Mr. & Mrs. I. H. Schectman

Your new move to save the terror ridden victims of Hitler has met with my whole hearted approval. I, and I am sure many other Americans would stand behind you if you could see your way clear to open additional camps. The haven America affords the Hitler victims is a necessary one, and let us protect and attempt to save as many as our great country can hold.

I salute you, Mr. Roosevelt, for your generousity and foresight. God bless you.

Respectfully yours,

Dear President Roosevelt,

Wonderful Refuge Bill

I sincerely think that the United States, and other allied nations should do their utmost for the poor homeless, and starved victims, of Hitlers ruthless reign.

Please do as much as you can, for these people.

Very sincerely yours,
