

B in - BJ

1

46 Water St. W.
Burlington.
Ontario
Canada.

Dear Mrs Roosevelt,
Should you wish
some more copies
please let me know
and I will gladly
send some along.
Yours sincerely
A. G. Bishop

Thank - dearly appreciate
me for me
always

Respectfully dedicated to the late
"Franklin Delano Roosevelt"

(He died in goodness as he lived.)

PASS along pilgrim of life; noble and sincere.
Amen — and so it shall be — but now the scene is drear,
Liberal, cheerful, and sublime, a crowd of kindly traits,
God in His inscrutable purpose, your soul awaits.

We who are left behind inherit the lessons of your life,
Upholding your ideals through worldly trials and strife,
Our heartfelt appreciation for your help in our distress,
No tribute of thanks can ever adequately express.

Honesty of purpose, deeds and action was your aim,
Filling that immeasurable theme, the height and depth of fame,
The day will come when people shall gather round your shrine,
And offer up a silent prayer for your nobility of mind.

Rest in peace, valiant warrior, in the rose garden by the cedar hedge.
The key to eternal happiness lies waiting on the ledge,
Grasp it fearlessly, it fits the locks of Heaven's welcome portals;
Enter, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, and take your seat among the Immortals.

Robert G. Bishop
Burlington, Ontario
1945

Respectfully dedicated to the late
"Franklin Delano Roosevelt"

(He died in goodurss as he lived.)

PASS along pilgrim of life; noble and sincere.
Amen — and so it shall be — but now the scene is drear,
Liberal, cheerful, and sublime, a crowd of kindly traits,
God in His inscrutable purpose, your soul awaits.

We who are left behind inherit the lessons of your life,
Upholding your ideals through worldly trials and strife,
Our heartfelt appreciation for your help in our distress,
No tribute of thanks can ever adequately express.

Honesty of purpose, deeds and action was your aim,
Filling that immeasurable theme, the height and depth of fame,
The day will come when people shall gather round your shrine,
And offer up a silent prayer for your nobility of mind.

Rest in peace, valiant warrior, in the rose garden by the cedar hedge.
The key to eternal happiness lies waiting on the ledge,
Grasp it fearlessly, it fits the locks of Heaven's welcome portals;
Enter, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, and take your seat among the Immortals.

Robert G. Bishop
Burlington, Ontario
1945

April 12, 1945

My dear Thomas Bishop:

Thank you for the lovely compact.

I am delighted to have it and think it was very kind of you to send it to me.

I am glad to send you the enclosed photograph.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Thomas Bishop
300 Riverside Drive
New York 25, New York

THOMAS BISHOP
300 RIVERSIDE DRIVE
NEW YORK 25, N. Y.

4/13/45
April 4th 1945

My dear Mrs Roosevelt,

Again I would like to take the liberty of thanking you, for giving me some of your so very precious time

I was so impressed that you gave me, being only a schoolboy, an opportunity of talking to the First Lady. Would it be too much to ask you, to honor me with a picture of yourself, made out to me, as a permanent recollection of this day?

May I also please ask you to accept the enclosed little token.

Respectfully yours,

Thomas Bishop