

Boy - Bow

I dont see why peoples weat untell a good man like this died before they can tell the good that he have doon tell it wale he is living so he can hear it to, Why weat untell a good man like this died before you can talk the good that he have doon, Dont you think that is the best thing to do let any one hear the good they are doing wale thay are living

5/6/45

This was a good man he give his life to help the peoples And I dont think that it will be another man that will sit in the white house will do the good that he have doon. This man was love by every one. Now he have gone home to God to take his rest in heaven. Sleep on Franklin and take your rest we all loved you but God loved you the best and took you home to rest. So some day we all will meet you again in heaven wiht God. He died in April th 12--1945--At, 335-Pm At wamspring Ga

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt Was marryed in March th the year was 1905 And he G. in 1905 from a chool on 36 St in New York City

And died on Thursday at 335 Pm He was years old when he died

This was written by

CARL PAIGE BOWEN

I was in confinement when our beloved friend passed away.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt
1882-1945

THE NATIONAL SECRETARY, COMMISSIONER DONALD McMILLAN (Telegram to Mrs. Roosevelt).—Joining with a nation bowed in human grief at the passing of its illustrious son and first citizen, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, The Salvation Army throughout the land extends to you and your family its sympathetic and prayerful remembrance. The President's great heart of human compassion and understanding encompassed the needs of all classes of the nation's peoples and reached in brotherhood beyond the borders of our own country to bring succor to the oppressed and liberty to the enslaved of all lands. His passion for peace amid the ravages of war will mark him for all time as our great war President and ardent champion of the eternal principles of righteousness, mercy and truth. He has fallen on the field of battle, but his spirit will long live in the hearts of his countrymen to inspire men to valiant deeds of courage and faith in the highest concepts of citizenship and noble manhood.