Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt
White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Here is the 1001st post asking you for your autograph and I am sure you must be sick and tired of it.

But I really would like to have you in my Book of Famous Persons, and do you suppose President Roosevelt would have time to write on a page, too? I am enclosing two or three pages and would appreciate your sending them back to me.

I have the signatures of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, the Deweys, the Willkies, General Marshall, and many others, and just last week I received Admiral Nimitz! And now I would like yours and President Roosevelt's to place beside theirs.

If you have time, perhaps you would write the date and state or town. That would be wonderful.

Thanks!

Yours very truly,

Althea C. Boxell
