Dear Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Enclose you will find an announcement of a rather important day for me. As it was an important day in April 1937, when you were in Nashville, Tennessee, and Mrs. Murphy of Gatlingburg, North Carolina, and I had the opportunity to pass for a news photographer in the Andrew Johnson Hotel.

I also heard your address at the University of Tennessee the same night you were in Nashville.

I know other things are so much more important and you at entirely to busy for any high school graduate to expect to be at their graduation.

When I finish in May, I plan to enroll as a Cadet Nurse at Memphis, Tennessee, so I can help a little in the winning of the war.

Your friend,
Evelyn Ruth Brooks
