The Immortal Face
(Franklin D. Roosevelt)

We still love the face which had wrinkled with care and we still love the silver in his hair, We love the smile which brought solace and cheer
To every the saddest of sphere;
And from all of this choice
We love most his voice
Because it is the echo of his soul
And makes us think he is not dead at all.

In Heaven Now

In Heaven now we have our own Big Three:
There's George there's Abraham and there's Franklin D.
And as they pose all gathered in that one big celestial chamber
They have left us things to remember;
To carry on their principles and Befall Their Yesses their Nos and their Wills;
That they were all men Sublime and to be grateful that One of them lived in our Time

— I am very sorry to hear of your accident & hope you are steadily progressing back to full health

Thank you for your kind words about my bereavement —

Northern Pacific Hospital
Tacoma Wash. Apr. 27, 1947.

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt—

On September 10th I was involved in a railroad accident. Since that time I have been in the above hospital on my back—with a few broken bones.

Each day I listen to your radio broadcast and enjoy it very much.

As a civil engineer I have been all over the world and am much interested in world affairs.

I have just received a letter from Mrs. Truman who was kind enough to take time to write me.

Could you find time to write me a note—

Sincerely

Charles Brenner

Dear Tommy, Brett

Roger is now in AKRON. OHIO - address 53 BEAUPARC DRIVE.

Tommy, if Mrs. Roosevelt needs someone to drive her any place during the next month, let me know - it's dark there is up here in the country. I think taking away the license is the worst thing I've heard.

Affectionately.
