My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I did not deserve that beautiful speech you made the other night, but I am very grateful to you for having made it. I suppose we all like compliments that we know we do not deserve. As a matter of fact, we reformers do not labor in the hope of winning compliments and gratitude. We struggle for the cause because we feel it to be our duty, and are very glad for the opportunity that comes our way to give it a shove.

I suppose every reformer is glad of every other one and wish there were more. It is gratitude that I feel every day and hour that you have lived so bravely and with such marvelous strength during the last few years. I have no words to express my feeling, but I will say that I love you, I admire you, and I am glad that you have lived and given to the world the wonderful benefaction you have. Blessings on you.

Most sincerely,

Carrie Chapman Catt

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt;

Thank you for your very kind message of sympathy, at the time of Mrs. Catt's death, and for the lovely spray of flowers. It was Mrs. Catt's wish that all arrangements connected with her passing should be very simple. But the services here in her own home were beautiful and followed her wishes as nearly as possible. We were fortunate in securing her old friend Dr. Walter VanKirk to officiate and only old friends were present.

She held you in very high esteem and affection and appreciated what you were doing for the United Nations and World Peace.

Very sincerely yours,

Alda H. Wilson

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I wish to thank you for your letter of April 16, apprising me of your interest in a stamp to honor Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt.

I am very glad to know that such an issue has your approval in the event that appropriate opportunity for such a stamp is offered.

At the present time productive facilities are so overburdened as to prevent the approval of any additional commemorative stamps without seriously interfering with the printing of stamp supplies necessary for the accommodation of holiday mailings later in the year.

Sincerely yours,

Acting Postmaster General.
