Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Many thanks for your kindness in penning the very charming introduction to my Visit to President Roosevelt. If you could return the text, I would be most grateful as it is my only copy. As soon as the little book is out, I shall take pleasure in sending you several copies for your libraries.

Would you say that the enclosed is correct?

With renewed thanks and best wishes:

Yours faithfully,

Cyril Clemens.

P.S.: The facts be decided to long

with the kind-bearing of a little book. I hope to write a trial

second in it.
I read with pleasure the account which Mrs. Cecilia Clamens wrote of her visit to my husband. It is quite true that my husband knew well the works of Mark Twain.

In fact, once or twice again, he quoted from them, trying to show that all of our children became acquainted with Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. I think my husband's family was "a Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

I hope the publishing of this that account ned emphasize that humor, sound learning + idealism may all go hands on hands as it did my Mark Twain.
Dr. James Roosevelt:

I have of Great pleasure to receive you

as a Daughter of Mark Twain,

were my relative Mark alive today,

he would recognize in you

a kindred spirit.

The Society has decided to bring this edition, account out on a little book. Would you do in the great book. . . . writing a brief

forward with all that I have?

Yours truly,
