COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK

PULITZER PRIZE NOMINATION

We wish gratefully to acknowledge the nomination of

Eleanor Roosevelt

FOR A PULITZER PRIZE IN JOURNALISM

We appreciate the interest which prompted you to cooperate with us in bringing examples of distinguished journalistic achievements to the attention of the University.

All awards are made by the trustees of Columbia University on the recommendation of the Advisory Board, which will meet in April 1947.

Acting President Frank D. Packethal,
New York City

Sevelon Brown,
The Providence (R.I.) Journal

Robert Chase,
The Boston (Mass.) Herald

Kent Cooper,
The Associated Press, New York City

Gardner Cowles, Jr.,
The Des Moines (Ia.) Register and Tribune

Palmer Hoyt,
The Denver (Colo.) Post

Frank R. Kent,
The Baltimore (Md.) Sun

John S. Knight,
Knight Newspapers, Inc., Chicago, Ill.

Arthur Krock,
The New York Times

William R. Mathews,

Stuart H. Perry,
The Adrian (Mich.) Telegram

Harold S. Pollard,
New York World-Telegram

Joseph Pulitzer,
St. Louis (Mo.) Post-Dispatch

[Signature]

Secretary of the Advisory Board
All prize-winning exhibits become the property of Columbia University. The University cannot assume responsibility for the return of any exhibits. However, other exhibits will be returned to the sender by express collect providing their return is requested in writing 30 days after the announcement of the Pulitzer Prizes in May.