Miss Heffron,
White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Miss Heffron:

In regard to our conversation on the phone this morning I am calling your attention again to how anxious we, "The Metners", are to help the Congressional Pages put over their War Bond Dance, April 30th 1945 at the Shoreham Hotel;

We would like a picture of Mrs. Roosevelt purchasing a Bond from one of the Pages.

Enclosed is the picture of a Page, Bill Foster from N. C. This young lad wrote the last article about "Life of a Capitol Page," published in the Star about Christmas time.

We sincerely trust you can arrange to have this picture taken for the Boys, I can have the Page at designated place any hour of the day that would suit you.

This will mean so much to the advancement of The Page School as well as swell the Bond drive.

Thank you very much,

I am, Sincerely,

Chairman

Emma J. Foster

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

The little magazine enclosed herewith seems to me to give a very interesting - indeed, thrilling - evaluation of the part played by our beloved President in this time of planetary crisis. Perhaps it has already come to your notice, but I am sending this copy in case you have not seen it.

and because I think that you will find it comforting as well as an interesting interpretation of events from the esoteric standpoint.

Very sincerely - and with every good wish to you and yours -

Harriet P. Foster.
