Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I guess you are wondering who I am writing to you from way down here in the deep south - Birmingham - I am one of your most ardent admirers - I was also very fond of our late President Roosevelt - He was, in my estimation, "top" - I wanted to write you when he passed away but I knew you would receive so many telegrams and letters which you probably would never see - That is the reason I waited till now to write - I have never been as deeply touched with the passing of a public figure as I was when he passed away.

Mrs. Roosevelt I just had to let you know how I feel about you and the love I still have in my heart for the great "F. D. R.". He is the only president I ever knew since I am just twenty years of age. I still have a picture of him and I get great pleasure
