Dear Mrs. Roosevelt: First this question - did you board a south-bound train at Raleigh N.C. and get off at Hamlet N.C. on July 26th? If so - you were directly across the isle from me reading a masonic Magazine:

2 In the hope that - you will not consider me a psychopath, the following is - however true - on or about Mar. 23 - 1947 your late husband, appeared to me very early one morning with this message: "Fulfill your mission no matter what the cost" —. The events following, in my life since then have been dreadful: I had no idea what this mission might be at the time - but this is what

Has become a fact: I am 58 years old — and am to give birth to a baby boy shortly, whom I am to name Owen Dean. This has been a great pregnancy — since I have had no sex relations at all in years: Two years ago, I lost my husband, as a consequence of the terrifying events that have hounded me since I received the message.
It would appear from my own observation and intuition that I was born with a male spermatozoon that lay imbedded in the left ovary — and did not begin to gestate until after 3 years past the menopause.
From the time gestation began slowly - I became the victim of a "war of nerves" — I know now who was the inspiration for this — but I choose not to divulge it at present — but certainly will do so in the future:

Does all this sound strange? To myself previous of 1947 - if anyone had told me such a tale - I would have said - such a person is demented - but it did really happen! And I will let you know just as soon as I can after the birth of the baby!
