N.Y. 17, N.Y.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I am a college graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree and with “Cum Laude”. I used to write to you when you were in the White House, and I still love you.

I have written a poem entitled “A Mile of Dimes” and I am sending a copy of it to you. Hoping that you like it. I am yours respectfully,

(Mrs.) Marie W. Green.
A MILE OF DIMES

A dime, yes, a mile of them,
For what is money compared with him?
Once he walked as other children do,
But POLIO sickness may come to you.

Yet, if we give our money, as REAL AMERICANS must,
And believe it's inscription ("IN GOD WE TRUST"),
Sooner, however, than we can tell,
Our loved ones will be happy, strong and well.

Mrs.

I am sorry, I cannot attend the meeting to hear the Cantata presented in my husband's memory. I am deeply appreciative.
Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt
Hyde Park, New York

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

On March 17th I wrote to your New York address inviting you to attend our meeting of April 15th, 1947, at which time an original Cantata will be presented in honor of your late husband, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Your secretary replied to this invitation and stated your inability to attend due to your crowded schedule. We of course, can understand the pressure under which your appointments are keeping you, and are very sorry that you cannot be with us on that day to share with us the tribute to be paid to this great man.

We are enclosing a program of this event which we believe will be of interest to you. The Cantata is an original script, based on excerpts from the speeches of the late President, set to the music specially arranged from Beethoven's Seventh and Ninth Symphonies.

Perhaps you would care to send us a short message on this occasion that we may read to those assembled, so that although you could not be with us in person, we may have the honor of your spiritual presence.

Very sincerely,

Mrs. Joseph Greenberg, Program Chairman
