April 12, 1947.

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

This day is one that gives me opportunity to send a short message to you.

When, two years ago, the news of the passing of President Roosevelt was announced, the majority of mankind mourned him, for he meant a great loss to humanity. I, too, mourned the deceased, whose universal knowledge and mind for freedom had my fullest esteem.

I, as well as many thousands of Europeans, who had a narrow escape from death, owe it to the late President that we found a new home in the United States.

I was a good citizen of my native country, and, henceforth, will become a good American citizen, and will always cherish the memory of President Roosevelt.

Yours very truly,

There were a lot of presidents,
But Roosevelt, was the greatest;
He sought to do a lot of things
But hardly saw them done it seems;
We loved him dearly in our hearts
Among the other things,
And so we say may he rest in peace
And have many pleasant dreams.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,
Sometime ago
I wrote a poem in memory of your late husband and thought you would like to read it. And so, I am enclosing a copy of it hoping that you will enjoy reading it.

Yours,

IN REPLY REFER TO:

28 July 1947

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt,
Apartment 15-A,
29 Washington Square West,
New York 11, N. Y.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

Thank you very much for your note of June 23 enclosing a letter from Miss Maria Gulovich regarding the possibility of employment with the Films and Visual Information Division of the United Nations Department of Public Information.

We have interviewed Miss Gulovich and find her an outstanding person. We would like very much to employ her but are hampered at the moment by budgetary considerations. We are requesting much-needed additional posts for 1948 and if these are granted by the General Assembly we hope to be able to employ Miss Gulovich.

Yours very sincerely,

Jean Benoit-Levy,
Director,
Films & Visual Information Division,
Department of Public Information.
