and Mr David Lilienthal.

I am rec this letter & I will be grateful for anything you can do for this man because he is a cripple. I do not know him & I would not want you to do anything that you feel you would not do ordinarily in these circumstances

My dear Mr. Russell

Will you accept the enclosed for lines which I wrote at the time Mr. Russell was taken from us. They are an humble effort to express the profound respect and love we (my wife and I) in common with millions the world over feel for him. Our wedding anniversary falls on the same date as yours, and we know in our hearts that if he were with us to day we would not be faced with the problems of hate and fear which beset the world. God surely blessed you with a fine husband and gave the world a great and good man.

Yours very sincerely

Meta and George Hampton

Lament For The Brave.

God Rest You, Franklin Roosevelt. May his angels guard your sleep.
Mid the mosses and the Roses by the Hudson calm and deep.
We miss you and we mourn you as the somber days drift by.
No more to hear the voice we knew, why did you have to die?

The crippled children miss you, 't'was they who understood.
Their cross so sore you also bore in patient brotherhood.
They knew you practiced what was preached in olden Galilee
"As you do to the least of these, ye also do to me."

The partisan and the patriot in lands beyond the sea,
The little lands we all forgot who Battled to be free.
Their campfires that had almost died, you fanned to living Flame America Exemplified. They read it in your name.

And in this land that gave you birth, both friend and foe acclaim
Your smiling courage, gentle mirth, that laughed at fear and pain
Sleep sweet beside the river where pleasant waters play
Mid the bird songs and the Roses, our hearts are there today.
