Dear Mrs. Goodrich, Just couldn't possibly let April 12th go by without remembering our wonderful friend and President.

(Mrs. Irving Hartburg) [1947]

I cannot say, and I will not say That he is dead,—he is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there,
And you, O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return—
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead—he is just away!

had he call?

September 24, 1947
WASHINGTON

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I find I'll be in New York tomorrow (Sept. 25 and the 26th.

Perhaps there will be a moment we may have a chat; I very much appreciate your letter of August 3, 1947, and I hope that your time at Campobello Island was pleasant.

I will call your office upon my arrival in New York.

With kind wishes,

Respectfully yours,

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I am appreciative of your letter or I should say Miss Thompson's letter, of the 15th which carried with it Ambassador Sayre's letter.

With regard to Ambassador Sayre's third paragraph I do not desire further service under Military Government at this time although I do desire to continue in my small way of public service for a few more years as I can afford it at present.

May I say that I hope your Geneva trip was in every way a good one and that you are having a well-deserved rest at Hyde Park at this Christmas Season.
Should you have a further idea on the U.N. line where I might possibly fit I should be most appreciative although you have done more than you should have already. I wonder if UNESCO is a possibility?

With kind wishes for the Holiday Season, believe me to be,

Most respectfully,

J. D. Harvey
