

Knapp, Sally
1947-49

THOMAS Y. CROWELL COMPANY

PUBLISHERS OF BOOKS

432 FOURTH AVENUE, NEW YORK 16, N. Y.

TELEPHONE: MURRAY HILL 5-3992
CABLE: "TYCROWELL," NEW YORK

April 2, 1947

Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt
Apartment Six A
29 Washington Square West
New York 11, New York

file

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Thank you so much for your consent to have Sally Knapp go ahead with a girl's story of your life. We do hope that you or Miss Thompson will be free to read the manuscript when it is finished.

We were delighted to hear that you are at work on the second volume of your autobiography. My copy of the first volume is one of my most treasured books for it is the copy you inscribed for Hendrik van Loon. Jimmie van Loon gave it to me after he died. I spent the week end with her in Old Greenwich and she seemed as lively and full of spirits as ever. Janet dropped in for half an hour and we all had a good talk together.

Our good wishes go to you and our thanks.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth M. Riley
Elizabeth M. Riley

emr:gp