My dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I am sending you a copy of Hadassah Newsletter, in which we pay, humbly and affectionately, our tribute to President Roosevelt. He has been and will remain for all of us in Hadassah one of the greatest of prophetic spirits in our time.

It is the hope of Hadassah that before the first anniversary of his passing, April 12 will be designated as a world-wide day of observance, to be known as Franklin Delano Roosevelt Day, a day on which we shall dedicate ourselves anew to the ideals of justice, world unity and universal freedom for which he fought.

With deep feelings of solidarity, I am

Sincerely yours,

Tamar de Sola Pool
