Dear Mr. Roosevelt:-

Will you please accept this enclosed piece of verse which I have written in memory of your noble husband, I wrote one previously in honour of him and it has been accepted by the Walds anthology of Verse and published

We the people of Canada as well as the people of the United States owe much to the late president

His undaunted courage his leadership in time of crisis, noble self sacrifice have endeared him to us,

The people of the Dominion of Canada, and he shall forever hold a place in our hearts.

So, dear Mrs Roosevelt, please accept this little token of esteem and respect in memory of a great leader -

yours very truly

Mrs)

Marion L. Krogh.

"Franklin. D. Roosevelt."

KROGH

"In" memoriam

God" called him home
He bade farewell to none
But hastened to his Saviour's Call Be, loved, Well Done.

He gave his life
The tired heart slowed down,
He laid aside the heavy load
To wear The victor's crown.

Oh! master worker,
Who laboured on, in ceaseless toil,
Great mind, inspired
No petty thought could spoil.

"Roosevelt the great" "Sleep on,"
"Sleep on, and take thy rest"
A world of nations, mourn thy loss.
But God" knows best.
