Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I have not had a chance to call on you since you returned from the West coast. However, I am going to call Miss Thompson and ask her when it would be convenient to have a visit with you in the near future. I want very much to talk with you about the relationship between the Truman doctrine and the United Nations.

This week marks the second anniversary of the President's death, and I think that a great many people in the world feel that it has been a rudderless two years.

The new job is coming along well and I like it very much. Mary is still in Boston and probably will not be down until the fall. I have a room quite near you in the Village, and hope that I can drop in occasionally without being a bother to you.

Very sincerely,

Jim Lanigan
