LANNON

I very much appreciate the kind thought of the Knights of Sion in awarding me a Diploma of Honor.

My husband was a descendent of Baron de Lannoy but I am not, so perhaps you would like to reconsider your award.

With many thanks, I am

POST OFFICE
BEDFORD VILLAGE, N.Y.

Dear Mr. [unclear]

I have taken the liberty of giving a note of introduction to you to my great friend John Cartmell who is the Presbyterian Minister in Bedford Village, and I consider a most unusual young man - He is one of the people here who runs a most interesting Forum comprising all the villages of the town of Bedford - which meets and discusses the

burning questions
of the day - He wants to get you to speak on some date in January.
So I will leave it to him to explain his own mission - Whatever happens I feel sure you will enjoy him -

With Pauline's death, which we must all look upon as a blessing, I feel that almost my last link with you has gone. I was devoted to her, and I shall miss her, and I consider that a great personality has been taken from us - also a great intellectual stimulus - at least she was that to me - and she had great courage - I was glad to catch a glimpse of you the other day at her funeral - and I wish we met more often -

Answer

Sincerely yours

Eleanor Capley
