It Was Really A Good Day

WARM SUNDAY. It was really a very lovely day. True enough, there was an occasional cloud here and there, but the sky was generally clear, and the breeze was just right to blow the clouds away with a wonderful wind. There was the glorious sun in the sky and a bit of mist at the bottom of the lake, and the whole scene was the picture of a happy day.

But, really, it was a lovely day and everyone seemed to know it. For a long time, though the clouds were thinly gathered, that the sun was going to shine. A very bright sun, a very bright sun, and a very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun.

But, really, it was a lovely day and everyone seemed to know it. For a long time, though the clouds were thinly gathered, that the sun was going to shine. A very bright sun, a very bright sun, and a very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun.

But, really, it was a lovely day and everyone seemed to know it. For a long time, though the clouds were thinly gathered, that the sun was going to shine. A very bright sun, a very bright sun, and a very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun.

But, really, it was a lovely day and everyone seemed to know it. For a long time, though the clouds were thinly gathered, that the sun was going to shine. A very bright sun, a very bright sun, and a very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun.

But, really, it was a lovely day and everyone seemed to know it. For a long time, though the clouds were thinly gathered, that the sun was going to shine. A very bright sun, a very bright sun, and a very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun.

But, really, it was a lovely day and everyone seemed to know it. For a long time, though the clouds were thinly gathered, that the sun was going to shine. A very bright sun, a very bright sun, and a very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun.

But, really, it was a lovely day and everyone seemed to know it. For a long time, though the clouds were thinly gathered, that the sun was going to shine. A very bright sun, a very bright sun, and a very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun. And the sun came up. A very bright sun.
Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt
c/o "McCalls"
230 Park Avenue
New York 17, N. Y.

My dear Roosevelt:

I am Librarian of the National Catholic School of Social Service Library and a student in the Department of Library Science of Catholic University.
To complete the requirements for the Master's degree in Library Science,
I am undertaking to compile a complete bibliography of the works of Monsignor John A. Ryan.

From my readings I see that Monsignor John A. Ryan and your husband were close friends. Perhaps you too knew Monsignor Ryan very well. It has occurred to me that some statement from you pertaining to the Monsignor would greatly enhance my thesis. It may be a paragraph or just a sentence that I, with your kind permission, may quote. I should greatly appreciate your granting me this favor. I enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope for your convenience.

Thank you kindly for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully yours,

Theodora McGill

Enc. 1