

Moro-Morr

April 17-1947.

Dear Mrs Roosevelt -

For sometime I have felt that someone should write an anthem embodying the aims of the four freedoms.

As no one else has done, I have attempted it myself. And I am enclosing a copy of the result.

I hope it meets with your approval.

Very sincerely yours

Ann Morrison

50 Morningside Dr.
New York City

UNITED NATIONS ANTHEM

( The Four Freedoms )

To tune of -
America-
God Save the King

Our Father God to Thee
Father of humanity
Guide us we pray;
To need, open hearts and ears,
Give love that holds no fear,
In Nations far and near
Let freedom live.

To banish fears and want
To worship and to speak-
Our aims for all ;
For not alone we live,
Not alone we fall,
But in one living whole
We attain our goal.

Our Mother Country, dear,
To thee we must repay
Our homage free;
But never more forget
Our neighbor nations' plight
Oh, guide us in the right
Eternal God our King.

By Ann Morrison

Dedicated to Franklin Delano Roosevelt
April 12, 1947