Dear Mrs Roosevelt,

Thank

When your good husband was elected President of the United States, I offered a prayer to God, "please God never let him let us down, ever, come what!"

You know and we all know, he will go down in history as the greatest living human document this world has ever known. "Thanks God!"

When our very much loved President, "Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt" went to God's country to meet his "Maker" I wrote some lines to you.

I then knew you couldn't be "Our First Lady" any more (which hurt more than is in my poor power to express) but I immediately thought

... as the "First Lady" of the whole side would.

Having written a few words of solace to you at the time, I found I just couldn't send them.

That great shock I hope has somewhat lessened by this time, so I find courage to now send them to you.

"From very good husband was born with potentialities for greatness in the nucleus. After his cruel illness it took your great courage and deep sympathetic understanding to raise his stature high above all men for all men."

We all love you and respect you to the nth degree.

Hoping you are well, and relatively happy, I am,

Sincerely yours
Marian Parrie

Dear Mrs Roosevelt,

One evening I was studying Oliver Goldsmith's "Deserted Village", before going to sleep.

Before I fell asleep I thought,
"If Oliver Goldsmith were living to-day he couldn't write more fitting lines namely ~~where~~ it takes one tyrant to desolate the land.
I awoke next morning with these lines racing through my mind.

Get us these be men and women,
Practice kindness in its infinite meanings,
And thereby give to God
A Haven for man on earth
Then man may learn how good life can be

Let us dare be men and women active kindness in its infinite meanings
And thereby give to God, a Haven for man on earth.
Then man may learn how good life can be;
I rewrote the above lines because I wanted four and not five lines.

The Postman will be here any minute and I wanted you to receive them; therefor, didn't rewrite all of the letter. Please pardon!

How very much I love, honor, and respect you!

Sincerely yours,
Marion Ferris

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

We, the members of the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Jewish Youth Club have been organized with the purpose of perpetuating the name of your husband for the good he has accomplished in attaining a non-sectarian understanding among peoples, among his other good works. And to show pride in our organization we have purchased club pins bearing the inscriptions F.D.R. in Hebrew letters (772).

Will you kindly accept this pin as a token of the respect we bear for your late husband and as an appreciation for your carrying out his ideals.

Yours truly,

David Persin

My Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

A suggestion for your consideration, in connection with the "March of Dimes" Program for 1948.

You send "Jala" to Warm Springs - to live out his life as a pet for the kids there and a comfort to them.

Also send all the personal effects of our Late President - such as hats, shoes, robes, clothing, shirts, cigarette holders, smoking stands, pens, unused pencils - etc etc including fishing accoutrements, rods, reels - Sun hats & fishing traps - also writings, reminiscences, unfinished speeches, articles etc. - along with "Jala" to create a "Memor'ium"

Perkins, J.

For the 1948 Radio Drive - 1948 have small folder or pamphlet printed showing new + old photos of J.D.R. - and also snapshots of Jala, together with a few pages of "Famous Payings" - etc of the President - few pictures of relics in the Museum room - pictures of La Nall + other scenes at the Jemination - Various groups + Individual photos of the parents - views, etc + -

Such folder will readily sell for $1.00 - as an honorary tribute to our Late President - Several million should be sold - This plan would be an additional source of funds, and in no way impede or hamper the 'March of Dimes': -

No Charges + no obligations - but if I could help you out in such a plan down here, will be more than glad to do so.

Kindest regards + best wishes -

Respectfully,

Jas. T. PERSONS

P.S. you might send a portion of 2.D.R.'s stamp collection - for the memoir's name.
