Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Mr. Washington, the Assistant Solicitor General, showed me your very kind letter of June 27, 1947. I am deeply appreciative of the generous things you said.

It was a privilege to work with you, and I hope to be permitted to continue to aid and assist you in the development of the international bill of rights.

May I also thank you, on behalf of my wife and sister as well, for the pleasant evening at Washington Square and afternoon at Hyde Park. We enjoyed them very much.

With kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Herzel H. E. Plaine

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Your letter of June 27, with reference to the assistance rendered by Herzel Plaine during the recent session of the Human Rights Drafting Committee, is very much appreciated here. Herzel is indeed a splendid lawyer and I am happy that we were able to make his services available to you.

Thank you again for writing to us.

Sincerely yours,

George T. Washington

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

It was very gratifying to hear that Herzel Plaine had rendered such good service at the recent session of the Human Rights Commission. The work of the Commission is being followed with great interest by this Department.

Thank you very much indeed for your kind letter, which I will bring to the attention of the Attorney General on his return to the city.

Sincerely yours,

George T. Washington
