FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT
1882 - 1945

Out in a quiet and peaceful resting place,
Beneath Mother Natures sod,
Lies our gone, but not forgotten President,
By an act of Our Almighty God.
It seems not so very long ago,
Our Dear President, we did see,
Who journeyed onward to his resting place,
The land of Eternity.
His face - his smile - his tender heart,
And his devotion for all mankind,
Shall remain an everlasting memory,
His equality - we ne'er shall find.
His life will help paint a picture,
Like that of Our Almighty God, on high
For he was a part of everyone of us,
We shall miss him more - as time goes by.

Heavenly Father, may These few moments of silence for our departed President Franklin Delano Roosevelt Quicken our steps for a brighter World, and Grant him his wish for all mankind.
"Everlasting Peace." AMEN.
