

To The Beloved Family ^(H. Roth) ^{1/30-}
Of Our Own F. D. R. 1947

How proud we all are at the tribute given to our beloved F. D. R. today & this is only the beginning for long after we're gone the children of today will celebrate his birth in true American fashion for their parents & history will relate to them the grandness & greatness of this man who served his country & his fellowmen so valiantly & gave his life so that others may live.

May he rest in Peace & serve God on High as he did the whole wide world. For He was God's righteous son both.

If only he could have lived to see the Place he created & longed for - for we need him now more than ever. The world leaned towards him so much we're stranded & lost without him. Why oh why did we let him slip away from us. A man who spoke out loud on the Radio - a man who always seemed so near died alone away from all of us - what wouldn't we all have done to save him.
May his name live & shine for many centuries to come Amen

Sincerely Yours, Mrs. Hannah Roth 1464 Brookline Ave. Brookline, Mass.
