My dear Maria, Apr. 19

Enclosed here is a copy of my letter to your American friends as per your request. I am deeply grieved at the thought of his last tribute to my husband's memory, which you wrote.

Deepest sympathy,

Yours affectionately,

[Signature]
My best wishes to you and all of the children of Agade. Continue to live the future well.
See her here written.
Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

The children of the United Nations have just received a particularly fine letter from one of the members of a new club in Prague, Czechoslovakia. Because it contains the young girl's account of a beautiful tribute to Mr. Roosevelt, we are sending you a copy.

If you make any acknowledgment of this letter, will you make it to Maria, who organized the new club? I know it would make her "more happier" than anything else could.

With thanks and best regards from all of us,

I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Mildred Wilson

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt: Just got through listening in on the Radio the Memorial service for your husband and the friend of the whole United States. It is indeed a very sad time I sit and cry with thousands of the fine friends we lost, being a widow since Nov. 30/1934 and having the honor to say my husband was the first Chairman of the President Roosevelt Club to again know him at a banquet at Washington in May 1934. A picture of which I have kept with some 600 who attended little did I think that the following November I would lose all that we worship. I am indeed happy that I could carry on for several years after that as Chairman of the Ball made my heart fail but happy that I could show that I was feeling you the best of everything.

Sincerely,

Ida E. Schmidt
