SOUVE.

February 1, 1947

My dear Mr. President:

I am deeply grateful for the message which your Ambassador transmitted to me. It was very kind of you to think of my husband when you were taking office and your message reached me on the anniversary of his birthday in his message.

My husband would have been happy to know that France was free, and he would have hoped for her complete success and recovery in the future.

With every good wish, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

The President of the French Republic has asked me to transmit to you the following message, which I take honor and pleasure in conveying hereafter.

Le souvenir de cette noble figure reste gravé dans le coeur de tous les Français qui n'oublieront jamais sa part dans la victoire des démocraties et dans la libération de notre pays. Parlant au nom du peuple français, il me tenait à coeur de vous faire part des sentiments qui animent mes compatriotes à l'égard d'un homme qui a tout fait pour la liberté et la

Re: your letter of December

Dear Madame:

With reference to your letter I would like to advise you that your letter has probably been sent to our office mistakenly as there are no "war slave working prisoners" in the Soviet Union. As to the location of the prisoners of the Second world war who are in the USSR, you may apply on this matter to American Index Location in New York City, N.Y.

Sincerely yours,
