Dear Mrs. Roosevelt,

I am writing this letter to congratulate you for your speech you made today. I think it was fine, well I cant remember very much about it but I know it was very good because I was ~~sitting~~ sitting right next to the radio. There isn't much to say but I wish you would write a little letter so I can know you have received mine. (M. abby) you can not read it because I am writing kind of fast because I have to go with my mother and father on a trip. Well I do not know how to end this letter but all I can say is that it was a good speech.

Sincerely Yours
Nancy Stewart

My dear Mrs. Roosevelt.

Perhaps you will remember meeting me at the U.N. Assembly this past September and also in correspondence while I was Pres. of the University Veterans association here at Chapel Hill.

Last week October 24th I have been invited home to speak at a combined meeting of the Washington, North Carolina Women's Club. I felt it most fitting at this time, when so many little people are seeking a solution to their own country's and the other nations of the world's problems, to speak on "Our Responsibility to the United Nations."

Recently we had the Hon. Alfred Stirling Minister of the Australian to the United States and the Hon.

John S. Reid Counsellor of the New Zealand Legation speak at the University under the Campus Chapter of the Collegiate Conference for the United Nations.

The two gentlemen spoke well but mostly of their country's history. However, the thing most of us want to know is how we can be of aid to you in the United Nations. I would greatly appreciate your kindness in this matter and in sending me any material that I might use in the half hour talk.

We hated that Dr. Frank Graham had to leave us hardly before the year had begun, but I am sure that he will prove of Much greater service to his country and the world in his Commission with the United Nations. Should you see him there in New York please give him my kindest regards.

I look forward to hearing from you and sincerely trust that I have not taken too much of your time with this letter -

With my best wishes -

William Blount Stewart
