[TUCKER]

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt.

Here is a poem by my thirteen year old Brother written in memory of your late Husband Franklin
Delano Roosevelt.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Michael Lock

For He Is Dead

I

Our President has passed away
So here is a tribute I would like to say
He was good to both rich and poor
But now he can help no one no more
For he has passed through Heavens door
And there he shall stay forever more
He shall never again return
Though for him many hearts may yearn
For He Is Dead.

II

He had four sons in service
All were across the sea
One of his sons got to see him
But not the other three
He had done much more for the working man
Than any other president has ever done or can.
And now let us bow our heads in sorrow
To our departed president who never again shall see the morrow
For He Is Dead.
