Dear Mr. Wallace:

Your speech before the electrical workers in Boston has just been brought to my attention.

By implication you seem to be condemning the little group within the electrical workers union which has fought the communist group. Perhaps you do not remember that Jim Carey was ousted by the communist group and was one of a small group which continued to agitate for the things for which he stood, and that group, under his leadership has been trying to regain control.

I wondered if you knew this and realized that what you said was thought by many people to be an attack on Jim Carey and his group.

Very sincerely yours,

Wallace, H

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I have been out of New York continuously since you wrote your letter of September 25. As always, I am most happy to hear from you.

When I spoke to the UE Convention I was expressing my views. I was certainly not concerned with personalities.

Most sincerely yours

H A Wallace
