Mrs Eleanor Roosevelt

Hyde Park, N. Y.

My dear Mrs Roosevelt,-

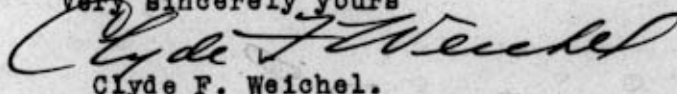

On this, the second anniversary of the death of our beloved President, I wish to respectfully submit a thought which has been in my mind since the President died.

Dear God, we pray on bended knee
Keep safe the soul of Franklin D
The race of life he nobly ran
He loved and served his fellow man.

With millions of others, I join you with sympath-etic remembrance of a truly great and good man.

Very sincerely yours

AN EASTER MESSAGE JUST FOR YOU

"In a changing world, it's good to find
That you are one of the changeless kind"

In a changing world, it's good to find
 That you are one of the changeless kind
 You're always loyal - always true
 Always kind and thoughtful, too
 And so this message will express
 A wish for Easter happiness
 For Easter gladness that will last
 Long after Easter time is past
