Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I have been ruminating over the problems which you put me at the end of our lunch the other day, but as yet have had no really bright ideas.

Randolph Paul was in town yesterday and I mentioned to him a little of our discussion, telling him that the objective was some plan to realize capital gains. He told me to let you know that if at any time you wanted to talk to him about the matter he would be delighted to do so.

I am off on my spree now to California. I expect to be gone until about the middle of March and as soon as I get back I want to see you again. In view of the good time that I had at lunch, I know that it has been much too long between visits.

With warm regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
Louis S. Weiss
